EVERY CHAPTER should be planning now to send a sizeable and competent delegation of undergraduates to the Asheville Grand Chapter Congress next August. This is the big show—this is the main event. The 23rd Grand Chapter Congress will have two main functions:

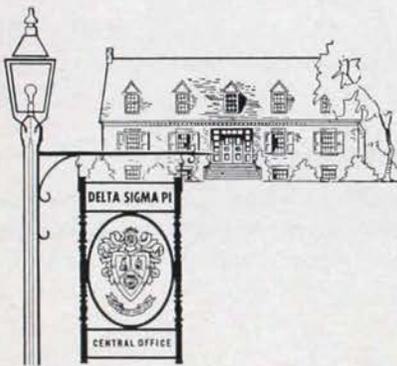

One of these is a continuation of our constant effort to provide the best possible help to chapters and chapter officers as they carry out their professional program, which is our principle effort, and as they engage in the many other activities necessary to make that professional program live and prosper. We do that in many sessions where chapter delegates hear discussions by our national officers, and where delegates themselves contribute their own ideas, from all over the country, as to how our many activities may best be maintained.

The other function is the government of our fraternity. You will consider reports of our national officers on the performance of their duties. The Executive Director will tell how he has carried out his work. Then you will consider all law changes which have been properly proposed, will decide any matters of policy needing general consideration, and will elect Regional and National officers to carry on the business of Delta Sigma Pi for the succeeding two years.

But, and perhaps most important of all, you will meet Deltasigs from all the other chapters, you will extend your fraternalism both in breadth and depth, you will truly become a national Deltasig.

Your chapter will delegate its responsibilities to its delegates. You should choose the best possible representation, and should demand faithful attention to Congress duties, so that the actions of the Congress will reflect your desires, and so that Delta Sigma Pi will continue to be the strong and vital fraternity it now is.

SINCE REPORTING to you, in the November issue of THE DELTASIG, the Fall program of the Fraternity and The Central Office has rolled on bringing us four new chapters: Epsilon Zeta at Midwestern University in Wichita Falls, Texas; Epsilon Eta at Eastern New Mexico University in Portales, New Mexico; Epsilon Theta at Chico State College in Chico, California; and Epsilon Iota at Mankato State College in Mankato, Minnesota. Two other petitions are now being considered by the Grand Council so we have every reason to believe that our expansion pace will continue.

Our Seventeenth Biennial Survey of Universities Offering an Organized Curriculum in Commerce and Business Administration rolled off the press with over 370 universities represented in it. To date 5,200 copies have been distributed to our Fraternity officers, leaders in education, and personnel administrators in business and industry. A copy of the Survey is also being reprinted in this issue of THE DELTASIG for the benefit of those who have not already seen it.

Chapter visitation, attendance at the Annual Congress of American Industry of the National Association of Manufacturers in New York City, and final arrangements for our 23rd Grand Chapter Congress in Asheville, North Carolina, in August will be top priority for Field Secretary Charles Farrar and myself during the next few months.—JIM THOMSON

Epsilon Zeta Chapter Installed at Midwestern University

ON OCTOBER 15, 1960, the Epsilon Zeta Chapter of Delta Sigma Pi was installed at Midwestern University in Wichita Falls, Texas. This installation brings the total of Delta Sigma Pi chapters in the State of Texas to 10 and the active chapter roll to 103. The other

The installation and initiation ceremonies were held at the Holiday Inn in Wichita Falls, Texas, and began with registration of the installation team and guests prior to lunch, which was eaten at Underwood's Bar-B-Q. All were then treated to a tour of the Midwestern University campus and the city of Wichita Falls.

Upon returning to the Holiday Inn the program became more intense with the informal and formal initiations consuming the balance of the afternoon. Grand President Homer T. Brewer headed the installation team and was ably assisted by Regional Director Joe M. Hefner, District Directors Ronnie G. Smith and Ronnie W. Clark, Past Grand President Kenneth B. White, Past Director B. C. Butler, Alumni Claude D. Whitley and Daniel L. Wigley, and delegations from many of the chapters and alumni clubs in Texas and Oklahoma.

The Installation Banquet, which was also held in the Holiday Inn, was under the direction of Joe M. Hefner who served as toastmaster. Brother Hefner's first duty was to introduce Dr. D. L. Ligon, vice president of Midwestern University, who welcomed the new chapter on behalf of the University. Franklin R. Madera, acting head of the Division of Business, then gave the guests an insight into the founding and history of the Division. The history of Delta Sigma Fraternity was related by Senior Vice President Kenneth N. Wells, and Grand President Brewer produced the climax of the program with the charge and charter presentation. President George E. Halkias of Epsilon Zeta Chapter accepted the charter on behalf of the entire chapter. In conclusion, fraternal greetings were extended by all of the officers and delegations in attendance, and letters and telegrams were read from chapters, alum-

History of Midwestern University

Midwestern University, located in Wichita Falls, Texas, made its appearance in 1922 as the Wichita Falls Junior College, the first municipal junior college in Texas. It was temporarily housed in the Reagan Junior High School Building, and had a first-year enrollment of 18 boys and 27 girls. In 1923 the college was moved to the Senior High School Building where it remained until it moved to its present facilities in 1937.

In 1937, in honor of a gift made to it by Mr. and Mrs. John G. Hardin, Wichita Falls Junior College was renamed Hardin Junior College. The present facilities were constructed on a forty-acre tract of land given by Mr. W. B. Hamilton and the late Mr. N. H. Martin and were occupied in that same year.

In 1946, the senior college division was established and the over-all name of the institution became Hardin College.

In 1950 the name of the institution was changed to Midwestern University, with the junior college division remaining Hardin Junior College. In December of 1950, Midwestern University was approved for full membership in the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. The institution is approved by the Texas Education Agency and is a member of the Association of Texas Colleges and Universities, the American Association of Colleges, the Texas Association of Music Schools, and the National Association of Schools of Music.

In January, 1952, the program of Graduate Studies was authorized by the Board of Directors of the University. Two graduate degrees are offered, the Master of Arts and the Master of Education. During the 56th Texas Legislature (1959) legislation was enacted designating Midwestern University a fully state supported institution beginning in September, 1961. This legislation represents another steppingstone in the Midwestern story of progress, and marks the beginning of a new era of opportunity and service in the field of education.

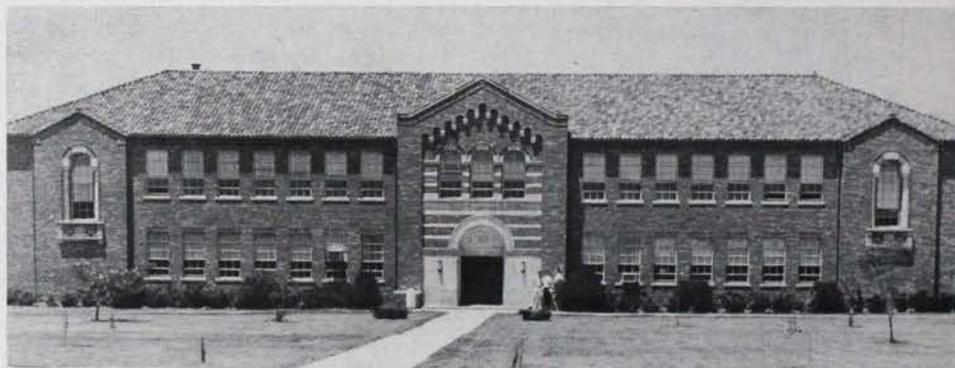

History of the Division of Business

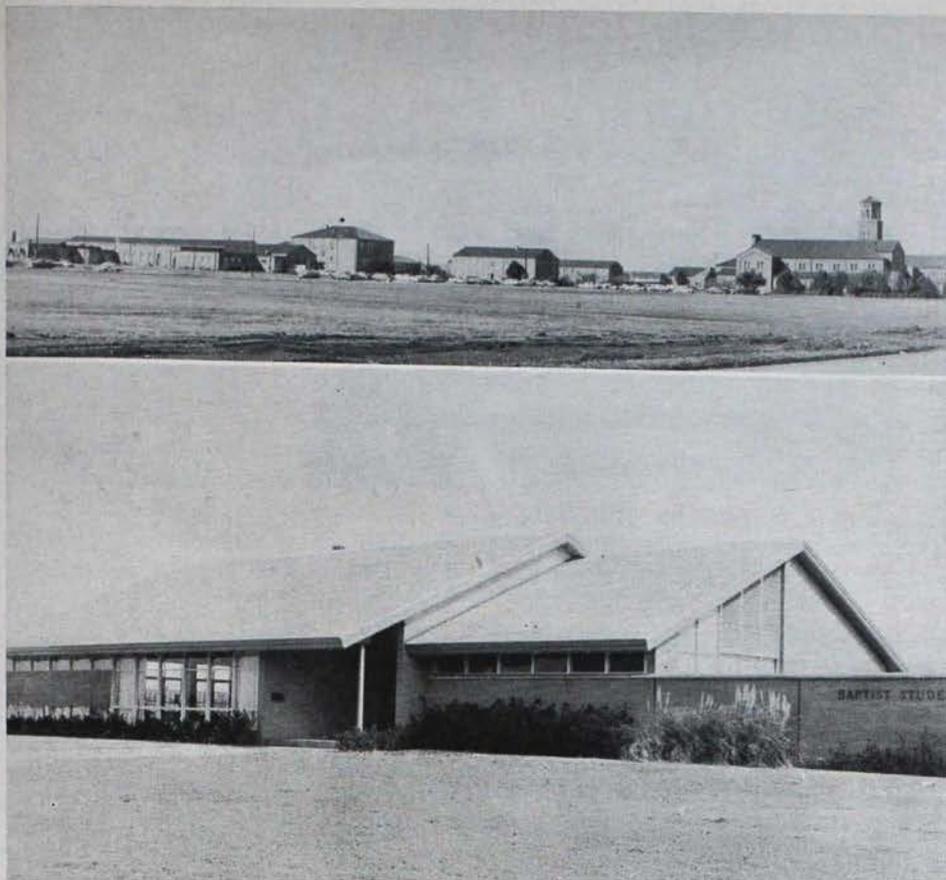

Business Administration and Economics have been an important part of Midwestern University since it was established as a four-year college in 1946. The Division of Business Administration and Secretarial Science was established in 1947. At this time Economics was a separate department, but in 1950, at the time the name of the college was changed to Midwestern University, the departments of Business Administration and Economics were combined.

A School of Business was organized in 1958 which included the various separate departments of business education, but in the fall of 1960 this School of Business was redesignated the Division of Business and now offers degrees in accounting, business education, general business, and secretarial science.

At the present time there are approximately 400 students majoring in business. The Division of Business is housed in the Fowler Building, a modern two-story building containing adequate laboratory and classroom space. Modern equipment is available for the study of statistics, secretarial science and office management, and is adequate to take care of an expected substantial increase in enrollment in the next few years.

History of Delta Sigma Fraternity

A Business Club had been in operation at Midwestern University for many years, but students and faculty alike were well aware that it did little to bring the business student into contact with all aspects of university life.

The possibility of establishing a business fraternity was first considered by the students as a result of correspondence between Mr. Joe Hefner, Southwestern Regional Director of Delta Sigma Pi, and Dr. Joel Dauten, Dean of Midwestern's School of Business.

Early in February, Mr. Hefner told a small group of business students of the purposes, scope and ideals of Delta Sigma Pi. These students felt that this international fraternity fulfilled many of their needs and, accordingly, set about organizing a local fraternity which would petition Delta Sigma Pi for a chapter. At a third meeting of the group the students set up their constitution and bylaws to correspond to those of Delta Sigma Pi, selected the name of Delta Sigma, elected officers and appointed professional and social committees. With the help of Mr.

J. D. Thomson, Executive Director of Delta Sigma Pi, Mr. Joe Hefner, Mr. B. C. Butler, Past Regional Director of Delta Sigma Pi, and Mr. Claude Whitley, alumnus of Delta Eta Chapter at North Texas State, Delta Sigma Fraternity was ready to start a full program for the spring semester of 1960.

Through its professional and social programs Delta Sigma Fraternity did much to effect a better relationship among its members, the faculty and the students and attained an enviable status on the campus of Midwestern University.

Delta Sigma Fraternity has now found its place on Midwestern University campus. It is looking forward to fulfilling the need of giving the business students a better relationship with the faculty and providing the students with professional contacts in the business world.

On October 15, 1960, the following undergraduates were initiated as charter members of Epsilon Zeta Chapter in the International Fraternity of Delta Sigma Pi: Clifton E. Anderson, Donald L. Berend, Terry Bourland, Carlton A. Carr, Milton D. Coker, Aubrey F. Evans, Danny Faulkner, George E. Halkias, Larry J. Hall, Ronald J. Hall, Jimmie E. Holland, Glynn D. Huff, Tommie W. Humphrey, Dennis L. Knipp, Olie A. Lazenby, Leonard Ledbetter, Donnie McManus, Sam McPherson, Howard L. Mercer, Jack C. Payne, Don C. Rutledge, Harold J. Snow, Jerry D. Steadham, Donald R. Tally, Ray C. Taylor, Harry D. Thornton, Kenneth N. Wells, Donald R. Williams, Warren H. Wise and Elbert L. Young. Faculty initiators were Joel J. Dauten, Leonard Dowlearn and Franklin R. Madera.

was Samuel Convissor, director of Community Relations for the Greater Newark Development Council. His excellent remarks brought home the importance of business leaders in the redevelopment of his and other cities to prevent massive slums in our larger cities. Delta Sigma Pi Completes Seventeenth Biennial Survey

JUST COMPLETED, after six months of preparation, is the Seventeenth Biennial Survey of Universities Offering an Organized Curriculum in Commerce and Business Administration. This Survey, which contains statistics and data on 372 colleges and universities offering business programs, is the largest and most extensive Survey ever completed by Delta Sigma Pi. It is customary to distribute over 6,000 copies of this Survey to leaders in business and education and the Seventeenth Edition will be no exception.

Delta Sigma Pi made its first Survey in 1928 and that contained the statistics on 89 colleges and universities. This Survey included the enrollment figures for the college years 1919-20 through 1927-28. In 1919-20 the total enrollment of these 89 colleges was 36,456, or an average of 409 per college. In 1927-28 the total enrollment was 67,496, or an average of 758 per college. Our present survey indicates a total enrollment of 291,473 or an average of 784 per college. In addition another 33,497 students were enrolled in graduate programs.

Our first Survey reported a total of 5,768 degrees granted in business administration while our present Survey shows 37,505 bachelors and 6,165 masters and doctors degrees were awarded in 1959-60.

We are looking forward to our Seventeenth Survey being of greater value because of its increased size. During the two years since the last Survey was published, we have had many requests for this next edition.

Although 372 colleges and universities participated in the Survey this is by no means the total number that offer programs in commerce and business administration. In order to make the Survey timely, however, we were forced to omit a few colleges which for some reason or another were unable to return the questionnaire promptly. Naturally we regret this, but we believe that the number of colleges and universities actually represented here do provide a good picture of the business administration program that is offered today in the United States and surrounding countries.

THE NEW School of Business Administration Building at Texas Technological College is this most attractive and unusual structure.

MAIN ENTRANCE

OFFICE WING

IN MAY 1960 the new four story classroom and office building housing the School of Business Administration at Texas Technological College in Lubbock, Texas, was dedicated. This new building, costing approximately $1,000,000, is part of an $8,000,000 building program at the College. Although contemporary in nature, this new buff colored building harmonizes with the Spanish Renaissance architecture of the other campus buildings.

The spacious mosaic tiled entries, lobbies, halls, and stairs are especially designed to accommodate the two thousand students changing classes hourly in the building. A sawtooth pattern on one side of the halls provides recesses for waiting students to keep them out of the traffic pattern. This same sawtooth effect on the south side of the building is designed to provide light for offices without letting in the direct light of the winter and summer sun. It also protects the offices from direct blasts of the dust storms that hit the South Plains. The huge tinted glass windows on the north of the building provide maximum use of the northern light in illuminating class rooms and reduces the glare from the direct light.

The unique thing about the new building is its construction. Each floor was poured at ground level and then raised into position with hydraulic jacks. Inside the building, architects have used reinforced concrete, other new materials, and new construction techniques to create stairways and other designs not previously possible. There are seventy-two offices for the faculty and twenty-six classrooms each with complete year round air conditioning. The interior, finished in glazed brick and vinyl tile floors, mosaic tile and vinyl fabric covered walls and large areas of glass, was selected to reduce maintenance and housekeeping.

The dean of business administration and his personal staff occupy a suite on the second floor, while the third floor suite houses the various department heads. On the fourth floor is the faculty reading room and coffee lounge. The School of Business Administration is currently headed by Dean George Heather, and has a large portion of the 9,000 students at Texas Tech.

The School of Business Administration has departments of accounting, economics and finance, management, marketing, and secretarial administration. Its objectives are to offer a liberal education, a professional education, an adult or continuing education, and research. The School grants the bachelor of business administration, the bachelor of science, the master of business administration, and the master of arts degrees, allowing a student to earn his bachelors or masters degree in any one of the departments.

Alumni Club Highlights

Baltimore—

President Mel Brown and Secretary Cliff Andrews have six meetings planned for this year. Some of the faculty at Johns Hopkins and Maryland will address the club at one of its coming meetings.

Chicago—

A total of eight meetings are planned for the Chicago Alumni club under the direction of Lou Talaga with Andy Swierski serving as secretary. A "Guys and Dolls Snowbound Party" is slated for February.

Denver—

Perpetual President Harry Hickey reports that all of their meetings are "tops" and there are 12 in all for the year. Secretary Russ Dissler has his hands full rounding up the clan for the first Thursday of each month.

El Paso—

Monthly dinner meetings are the fare of the El Paso Alumni Club with Kennon Womeldorf at the helm and Secretary Bob Rowe keeping the records. Guest speakers appear at some of the 12 scheduled meetings while others thrive on fellowship alone.

New York—

Past Grand President Frank McGoldrick is heading the New York Alumni Club this year while Don O'Brien is serving as its secretary. Founders' Day and the Round-up are the big events on the calendar. A number of old-timers in Delta Sigma Pi are also gathering for the presentation of the Deltasig of the Year Award to Paul Gorman.

Pittsburgh—

All of the Pittsburgh Deltasigs are looking forward to a tour of Westinghouse in January and a close inspection of the electronic brain. President R. K. Rees will be leading the pack while Secretary Harry Geist will be taking care of the details as always.

Philadelphia—Omega

President Bill Rinck and his brothers in Philly are especially proud of their efforts to obtain a new chapter house for Omega Chapter this Fall. Secretary Feather reports that they are now looking forward to 12 meetings this year to utilize these new facilities.

BROTHER BILL RINCK, president of the Philadelphia Alumni Club of Omega Chapter (left), presents plaque to Stanley Chamberlin, former advisor to Omega Chapter in whose honor the new chapter house is named.

San Francisco—

The Iron Duke Restaurant in San Francisco is almost a Deltasig club on the second Thursday of each month when all of President Nelson Mitchell's men get together for lunch. Secretary Al Zais informs us there are 12 such meetings planned and that there is always room for one more Deltasig.

Trenton—

Coming up in January and April are dinner meetings for the Trenton Deltasigs headed by President Joe Casarella and Secretary Al Morrison. It is going to take a huge crowd, however, to match that which attended the Founders' Day Dinner Dance held in November.

Twin Cities—

Minneapolis and St. Paul Deltasigs are eagerly anticipating their annual Economic Forecast Dinner this Spring. President Bob Fort and Secretary Dave Berg are already taking reservations for this renowned event.

Washington—

With renewed vigor the Washington Alumni Club is conducting 12 meetings this year, many of which are held in conjunction with Mu Chapter at Georgetown and Gamma Sigma at Maryland. Leading the club are Wilbur Davison and Jeff Gwaltney.

TWIN CITIES

ON SATURDAY, October 15, the Twin Cities Alumni Club celebrated its annual homecoming with more than 100 persons in attendance. Everyone was pleased with the Minnesota Gophers as they downed Illinois for their fourth consecutive win in the 1960 season.

Five "Rose of Deltasig" candidates were escorted to the event at the Pick-Nicollet Hotel by undergraduate members. After the dinner and short program, the "Rose" was crowned as our highlight of the evening. The balance of the evening was spent in getting acquainted and dancing.

The Twin Cities Alumni Club will be holding its Economic Forecast this January. Arrangements are already underway and the alumni are becoming eager.

Each Thursday noon, Deltasigs in the twin cities have a luncheon date at the Elks Club in downtown Minneapolis. We hope to see you there soon.—DAVE BERG

DENVER

THE DENVER ALUMNI CLUB and the undergraduate members of the Alpha Nu Chapter at the University of Denver, celebrated the Chapter's 35th Birthday at a joint banquet on the 6th of October 1960. The meeting was held at the Colburn Hotel in Denver, Colo.

Of the original 25 Charter Members who were initiated on that memorable occasion, —way back on October 10, 1925—six attended this birthday celebration. They were, Harry G. Hickey (AN-4), president of the Denver Alumni Club, John E. Kavan (AN-16), treasurer of the Denver Alumni Club, Arthur W. Krauss (AN-21), Curtis C. Hicks (AN-23), Robert C. Loury (AN-18), and John H. Tyrone (AN-12). All live in Denver except Curt Hicks, who resides in Ft. Collins, Colo.

There were 55 alumni, actives, and pledges at the banquet, which included quite a few alumni members from other chapters throughout the country but who are now living in or near Denver.

Brother Arthur W. Krauss, one of the charter members present and a retired Colonel in the U. S. Air Force Reserve, was the principal speaker of the evening. Art's subject was "Communism in the United States and How To Fight It." His many years of active duty, particularly those spent in the Pentagon in Washington, D. C., qualified him as an authority on his subject and he was given a standing ovation at the conclusion of his address.

The following month, November 3, the Denver Alumni Club and the Alpha Nu Chapter celebrated Founders' Day with another banquet at the Colburn. Over 50 brothers, pledges and prospective pledges, were in attendance at this affair. As a contrast to what Our Founders had in their day, back in 1907, we had two U.S. Air Force Missile Officers, Capt. James F. Wiesner and Lt. Frank W. Swoffard, present a program of the history and development of that all important field, "Missiles." Scale models of the various types of missiles that are being tested and developed by the different branches of our Armed Services, were presented and described, also a 30 minute motion picture on the history of the rockets.—HARRY G. CHAPTERS

DRAKE

ALPHA IOTA CHAPTER at Drake University started the Fall semester with its get acquainted smoker in the Ranch Room of the Hotel Fort Des Moines. We were fortunate in getting Bob Clark, past national president of the Jr. Chamber of Commerce, for our speaker.

As a result of our rush program, we have already pledged 14 men, everyone of whom is a potential asset to Delta Sigma Pi. By the time the January issue of The DELTA-SIG appears, these pledges will have been initiated by Alpha Iota Chapter. We should have no trouble meeting our quota in the Chapter Efficiency Contest and anticipate a perfect score.

This semester we are pushing a strong professional program. Already we have toured the John Deere Des Moines Works. Plans are being formulated for more field trips in the near future. We also have speakers for our professional meetings lined up from all phases of the business world. In summation, this looks like the best professional program we have had for many years.

We are also planning on entering a team in Drake's intramural basketball program. Judging from the enthusiasm shown, both by the members and the pledges, we are certain to field a better team than last year.

Because of our hard-working new officers and our fine group of pledges, we look forward to the upcoming year with high hope for continued success and progress.

We wish our graduated brothers of past years well and hope we can live up to the fine reputation they have built for Delta Sigma Pi on Drake's campus.—LARRY SCHROEDER

EAST TEXAS

DELTA PHI CHAPTER at East Texas State College has established an annual scholarship award to be given to the male graduating senior with the highest academic standing. Although the winner does not have to be a member of Delta Sigma Pi, Brother Thomas Loving won last year.

At our first smoker, held November 8, in honor of Founders' Day, Dr. Elton Johnson, head of the Department of Business, was our speaker. In addition to our members and special guests, 38 prospective pledges attended. Following entertainment and refreshments, six candidates for "Rose" of Deltasig were introduced to those present.

At the November 10 business meeting our speaker was Jack Olds, sales director for Hanson Kickernick. His topic was "Opportunities in the Business World."—JERRY D. PROCK

HAVING RECEIVED her bouquet of roses is Miss Diane Emmenegger, "Rose of Deltasig" of Alpha Beta Chapter at the University of Missouri.

MISSOURI

ALPHA BETA CHAPTER at the University of Missouri got its social season off to a successful start due to the efforts of Brother Bill Borgstadt and his social committee by having its annual Founders' Day Dance on November 4. Lovely Miss Diane Emmenegger was crowned the "Rose" of our chapter and she will be our candidate for the "Rose of Deltasig" Contest.

Our Fall rush smoker resulted in the largest pledge class in the history of Alpha Beta Chapter. A total of 49 neophytes were pledged due to the accomplishments of Brother Dick Senn, our Senior Vice-President. We are all looking forward to our Initiation Banquet on December 4.

On November 11, we took an industrial tour to Kansas City. The tour, planned by Brother Don Lotton, included trips to Hallmark Cards Inc., Phillips Petroleum Co., and the Trans-World Airlines Facilities at Municipal Airport.

Our chapter was very privileged to have Dean Bradshaw, Dean of the School of Business and Public Administration at the University of Missouri, as our guest speaker October 13. The Dean spoke to us on the subject of political parties, and the upcoming elections. The entire group found the Dean's subject extremely interesting.

We are deeply honored to hear that Brother Paul A. Gorman has received another outstanding award. In April 1960, he received a Citation of Merit in Business Administration during Business Week at the University of Missouri. Now we have been informed that Brother Gorman has been unanimously elected by the Grand Council of Delta Sigma Pi as Deltasig of the Year 1960. By his achievements, he has brought great honor to our school and to Alpha Beta Chapter.

Alpha Beta Chapter is again striving to reach the 100,000 point goal for the 21st consecutive year. We got off to a fine start as we received the maximum number of points for the previous semester's grades. With such a beginning, we should extend the fine record built in the past.—SIEGBERT LEVY

MISSISSIPPI SOUTHERN

WE OF GAMMA TAU CHAPTER are having the best year since our beginning here on campus. We had the most successful rush party that we have had in recent years; having pledged 26 boys, we feel that we are off to a fine start. We are already making plans for our next large rush party, and we feel that it will be even more successful. People on campus are hearing more about us through increased publicity and interest.

We have already taken one trip, and are in the process of planning others. We had a very good turnout for our trip to Jax Brewery and the Foreign Trade Market. They were both located in New Orleans, so we took them both in on the same trip. We had conducted tours through both places. The trip was educational as well as interesting.

We celebrated our Founders' Day also. We had a banquet at a local restaurant with Harry Schiayone, our president, as Master of Ceremonies. This will be an annual affair from now on.

Homecoming this year was a great success. We had a float-building party the night before the big parade, and all members and their dates lent a helping hand toward the completion of the float. The time spent on it really paid off as it was the best float we have had in a long time. Dick Eckert, chairman of the float committee, did an outstanding job of coordinating everyone's efforts.

We have plans for the future too here at Gamma Tau Chapter. We are looking forward to our Christmas party which will be held at the American Legion a week before the holidays. We are also planning another trip to New Orleans. This time we are going to the Southern Bell Telephone. The plans are not complete as of yet, but everyone is looking forward to it. It will probably be some time after the Christmas holidays that the trip will be taken. Mr. Paul Weisend, Mr. Wilson Ellis, and Colonel Wehling, members and Faculty Advisors, have taken a very active part in working with us, and we could not do without their interest and help.—JOE LIPSCOMB

GEORGETOWN

MU CHAPTER and Gamma Sigma Chapter of Maryland University combined their efforts with those of the Washington Alumni Club to celebrate the 53rd Anniversary of the founding of Delta Sigma Pi, with a stag banquet and later a dance on Saturday, November 5, and a Faculty-Alumni reception on Sunday, November 6.

Forty-three Brothers attended a reception and the stag dinner from 5-7:00 P.M., and heard Brother Wilbur Davidson, president of the alumni club, reiterate Harold V. Jacobs' story of Delta Sigma Pi's founding. Present were Dr. Joaquin De S. Coutinho and Mr. Richard Butrick, charter members of Mu Chapter at its origin in 1921.

The banquet was followed by a dance in The Hall of Nations at Georgetown University, from 9:00 P.M. to 1:00 A.M.

On Sunday, in the Alumni Lounge at Georgetown, there was a Faculty-Alumni reception, at which were present most of Georgetown's faculty brothers and alumni from both chapters. Among those present from the faculty was Dr. Raymond F. Pellissier, Director of the School of Business Administration at Georgetown, a Deltasig himself.

This was the first of a proposed annual joint function to celebrate Founders' Day, and a very successful base for an anticipated fraternal future between Mu and Gamma Sigma Chapters.—CONRAD E. KONECZNY

UTAH

SIGMA CHAPTER at the University of Utah salutes Jim Littlefield, its last year's Historian for outstanding achievement. Besides winning the scholarship key in 1960, Jim also managed to pass his C. P. A. exam the first time he took it. Jim possesses not only academic intelligence but a fine mixture of this and social intelligence. Jim's self-confidence, poise and pleasant personality will help to make him a real success in future years. Presently Jim is serving the inescapable six months in the army but Sigma Chapter hasn't forgotten him by any means.

It seems that the army is snagging brothers up as fast as the University lets them go. Lee Brown, last year's Sigma Chapter president, is also presently learning the fine art of becoming a soldier.

On the home scene, Sigma Chapter has already had the honor of the Field Secretary's visit. Charles Farrar seemed to have almost as good a time as we did at the dinner given in his honor on October 10.

Several of the brothers, including the President Edward Stark, attended the Intermountain Regional Meeting held on November 5 and 6, at Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Long range plans include mass representation at the Founders' Day dinner and dance held here at the University of Utah on February 28.—GORDON R. CLAWSON

SOUTH DAKOTA

MR. JOE FOSS, former governor of South Dakota and presently Commissioner of the American Football League, became an honorary member of Alpha Eta Chapter, of Delta Sigma Pi in May of last year. Mr. Foss, a graduate of S.U.S.D., a former Marine Fighter Pilot who shot down 26 enemy planes in the Pacific theater during World War II, a Congressional Medal of Honor winner, and a former General in the Air National Guard; to be certain he is a very busy and capable man.

The initiation was conducted by fraternity faculty members and was followed by a banquet in his honor. The highlights of Brother Foss's speech concerned his Alaskan hunting trip for polar bear and some of his business experiences with the American Football League. He believes that one should pick a career in which he is sincerely interested and then "go at it great guns." Mr. Foss stressed that "it is not where you came from that counts, but where you are going." —RICHARD E. BRINK

MEMPHIS STATE

GAMMA ZETA CHAPTER has a new Faculty Adviser, Dr. H. J. Markle, head of the department of management and finance at Memphis State. At the end of last year, Dr. E. I. Crawford asked to step down as adviser after serving in that capacity since the chapter was established at Memphis State in 1949. He said that someone else should be given a chance. We hate to lose Dr. Crawford since he was of such help in getting the chapter started and keeping it going through these years, but we are confident that Dr. Markle will help us in every way and the chapter will continue to progress.

On Sunday, October 17, we held our Fall Smoker at the Memphis Athletic Club. It was at this time that Dr. Markle was introduced to the members, alumni, and prospective pledges as our new Faculty Advisor. The main speaker for the evening was Mr. Wayne Burl, who is an alumnus of Delta Sigma Pi. He gave a very interesting and informative talk. Other speakers were Dr. Crawford and Brother Chipman our president, who stated the requirements for membership. The Smoker was a big success in interesting new pledges and also in bringing back many alumni.

We are now in the process of pledging 17 prospective members. They have two projects for the semester. The first was the Founders' Day Party at the Italian Country Club at which the pledges furnished the entertainment in the form of a skit. The second is the Industrial Conference, later in the semester.

Other activities during the semester include several professional programs at which we have men from the business world speak to us about their particular field. And, of course, the big event, the pledging of the new members in the middle of December.

Gamma Zeta Chapter wishes you all a Happy New Year!—JERE W. PERRY

WAYNE

GAMMA THETA CHAPTER at Wayne State University moved into their new house this past summer. On the campus the chapter is currently enjoying the privileges of their new home during this first semester of the school year. This new responsibility has proved to be very successful, and has added to the prestige of the chapter. Bob Gromlund, house manager, has provided the chapter with a more than adequate program of house rules, regulations, and activities.

Assuming the obligation of a chapter house is a big undertaking for any fraternity, and the immediate success of Gamma Theta's venture will serve as a reminder of what hard work can accomplish.

The Deltasigs at Wayne State beat Alpha Kappa Psi 18-13 in football to win the Bucket Bowl and return the Bucket to the House of Delta Sigma Pi. The Arab fraternity lost 26-22 to the Deltasigs to round out the football season. The Arabs are next door neighbors of the Gamma Theta Chapter.

A successful school year is underway for the chapter, and is an indication of fine things to come.—RICHARD H. WIGGINS

MARQUETTE

DELTA CHAPTER at Marquette University is enjoying a very successful semester both professionally, socially and activity wise. President Gerald Mullins heads the list of officers who are as follows: Senior Vice-President, Joseph Hegarty; Vice-President, Brand Spangenberg; Treasurer, Frank Probst; Assistant Treasurer, James Schiltz; Secretary, James Holmes; Historian, William Wickley; Chancellor, Thomas McMahon; House Manager, Greg Dunlop; Assistant House Manager, Ronald Sciepkko; Social Chairman, Wayne Schink; and Professional Chairman, Thomas Bruett.

Our professional activities have included a talk on life insurance, a tour of Miller High Life Brewery, and several other soon to be undertaken.

Social events have included Homecoming, a mixer with Kappa Beta Gamma, several date parties, and a hayride. The "Rose of Deltasig" contest and "Rose" Party under the direction of Brother Jerry Mehring will take place on December 3, and will include attendance at the Marquette basketball game prior to the "Rose" Party.

Delta Chapter is very proud of its First Place in Homecoming House Decorations. Brother Ray Rausch was chairman of this highly successful event.

Delta Chapter was pleased with a visit of Brother Jim Thomson on October 31. Brother Thomson reviewed Delta Chapter and gave suggestions for keeping up the high standards of Delta Sigma Pi. At the Central Regional Convention we were awarded the gold certificate for our first place in the Chapter Efficiency Contest. We look forward to continuance of this record.—JAMES P. HOLMES

SOUTHERN METHODIST

WHEN SOUTHERN METHODIST University began the school year, Beta Phi Chapter had a great problem of becoming once again a group within the ranks, as our membership had sunk to a new low, but with the fall rush, we were able to once again become a strong organization in the Fincher School of Business. We began the year with an informative attendance of the Southwestern Regional Meeting, which was very helpful so far as ideas for the good of the cause of our chapter and those in this Region. Our first big social event of this year was the Founders' Day Banquet which we celebrated at Johnnie Garret's home, the wife of one of our alumni. She still possesses the Deltasig spirit, and she entertained well the many people who were there. The party concluded with Johnnie and her sister playing the piano and guitar, respectively, and the group joined in the singing of all the old songs. The party was an able remembrance of the group who founded our fraternity 53 years ago.

Many of the gang congregated for a post-Homecoming Day party, too. Even though we lost the game to Texas A & M, we still were anxious to celebrate who knows what? We look forward, now, to next semester when we plan a party in celebration of the founding of Beta Phi Chapter. We look forward to an enthusiastic party then as some of us shared in the party after the initiation of the chapter at Midwestern University. Our own Brother Fred Ramsey was on the team who ushered the chapter into the ranks of Delta Sigma Pi.

We have had several interesting speakers, the most outstanding one being a Republican whose cause it seems was unanswered; he gave more of a philosophical diatribe than a political treatise. Many of our members looked unfavorably upon the election returns in Texas, but the present writer is most highly elated.

The new semester seems to be the goal of all of our seniors, who are quickly tiring of the University. We look forward to our "Rose" Dance when Miss Judy Franklin will crown the new "Rose" Queen. Now that Christmas is over and the new year has begun, we brothers of Beta Phi Chapter are striving for the new brothers with new ideas which we hope to pledge as our Spring rush begins this next week.—ROBERT M. ESCH

NORTH DAKOTA

ALPHA MU CHAPTER at the University of North Dakota has been very busy so far this year. To date, we have had three meetings, with a speaker at each one, and three rushing functions. We had a very fine talk by Richard W. Blaine, president of the Red River Valley Bank, at our meeting on November 16. He spoke to us on the problems of banking and the idea of banking as a career.

As a result of our meetings and rushing functions, we have already pledged 30 men. This far exceeds our quota set for this year. By the time the next issue of The DELTASIG appears, Alpha Mu Chapter will have initiated these pledges and any others we may have added, to further increase our chapter strength and future possibilities.

Alpha Mu Chapter was honored by the selection of Charles Greenwood, a brother active, to attend the 65th American Congress of Industry which will be held in New York, New York. Charles is a very energetic worker toward the interests of Delta Sigma Pi, and has a very high scholastic average. Charles has already purchased his plane ticket, and will be leaving shortly. We wish him luck on his trip.—DONALD J. KRAFT

NEVADA

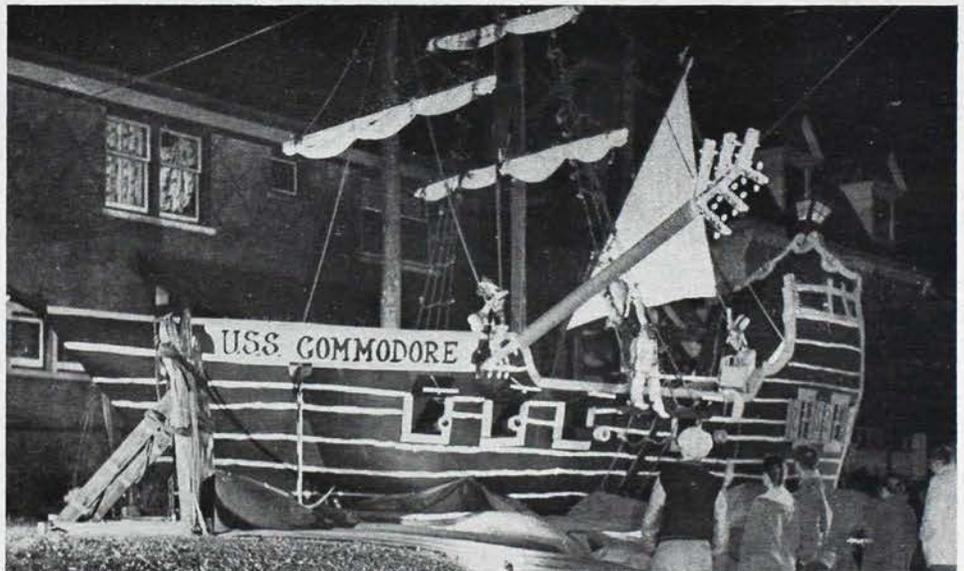

OUR FIRST RUSHING EVENT of the year was a semi-annual "Coffee Hour" which gave our members a chance to look over this year's crop of prospective pledges.

This year we have attempted a new program to attain better attendance at our meetings. We now have a combined business-luncheon meeting which has proven successful so far. This program has provided a better opportunity for faculty participation.

Founders' Day was celebrated with a combined faculty-member luncheon at The Knight's Restaurant on November 3. The President, Jack Clifford, addressed the membership on the importance of fraternalism and the proper indoctrination of pledges.

Our first field trip this year was an unusual one to say the least. We attended the grand opening of the new Nugget Motor Lodge. This trip was made possible by Dr. Edward Vietti, one of our Chapter Advisors, who is now teaching a course in Hotel and Motel Management. Most of the members were impressed by the unusual decor of the various suites some of which feature swing-chairs in the living rooms and elegant wall coverings.

Our Chapter President, Jack Clifford; Secretary, Wayne Bowden; and Chapter Efficiency Contest Chairman, John Welch; attended the Western Regional Meeting. All three reported that they were impressed with the effort the national organization and the other attending chapters made to assist in the solution of chapter problems.

A BATTLESHIP of olden days, sails and all, attracted much attention on the front lawn of Delta Chapter during Marquette's homecoming.

MEXICO CITY

THE SUMMER QUARTER was an active one for the brothers who remained in Mexico. Things got underway quickly with Delta Mu Chapter's participation in the American Colony's Fourth of July celebration which raises funds for the needy of the City. The money we gathered through the sale of chocolate-covered bananas has helped us support a mental therapy project at La Castañeda, the mental institution. Initiation of new brothers in August was followed by a luncheon attended by almost the entire faculty of the Mexico City College Foreign Trade Center. The bowling team, captained by Pancho Arellano, garnered 2nd place, unfortunately missing a first place trophy by one pin. As September rains hit Mexico City several brothers drove to the Regional Meeting in Dallas. They have since reported to us of the worthwhile activities of the conference and Delta Mu Chapter is proud that they brought home the attendance trophy.

Fall quarter promises to be even more active as many brothers have returned from the USA. We are now planning our Founders' Day Dinner-Dance which will be held at one of Mexico's finest clubs. The Dance will be the first major affair attended by our new ten-man pledge class which represents the USA, Mexico, South America and Europe. Several of the pledges are on the baseball and tennis teams and we look forward to great things from them, scholastically and athletically. The entire chapter plans to devote several Saturdays of further aid to La Castañeda as we help construct a wall around the children's playground.

Individually, the brothers are making Delta Mu Chapter proud of them in school and community activities. Pepe Mehan continues his column, "Within the Age Limit," for one of the City's finest newspapers. President Victor Calderon is the new president of the Student Council. Eduardo, Vic's brother and a new pledge, and Bo Bowington are treasurer and secretary respectively.

Our school-service activities keep us busy as we aid in mailings to alumni and in conducting visitors on campus tours. Delta Mu Chapter recently sponsored showings of films of the Kennedy-Nixon TV debates and a "straw-vote" which Senator Kennedy won by a wide margin.

Planned activities include field trips as well as speakers from leading American firms in Mexico and from Mexican Government offices.—PAUL PRICE

CREIGHTON

BETA THETA CHAPTER at Creighton University manifested its potential for the coming year by pledging an excellent group of 16 men in the first semester pledging activities. Under the direction of Brother Don Barry and his energetic committee, the Help Week and subsequent initiation on October 23, were effected efficiently and impressively.

Service to the university has assumed an important position on the calendar of activities, as the Deltasigs have once again accepted the responsibility of ushering at student assemblies. Also, working in conjunction with the alumni office, over 10,000 letters were processed, telling of Creighton's progress and plans for the future.

A great deal of interest in politics naturally has been generated on campus this Fall. To help educate the voting public in the general elections, pertinent information was disseminated. The Deltasigs have done well in their individual campus political endeavors as well, capturing all of the class offices, as well as three of the four seats on the Student Board of Governors allotted to the College of Business Administration. To round out these achievements, Brother Tom Mahoney has been elected president of the Interfraternity Council.

With Homecoming and its consequent trials and tribulations past, the mass of group effort has been directed toward the preparations for Business Administration Booster Days to be held February 22 and 23. Senior Vice-President Don DeMars has met with terrific co-operation from the brothers, and this year's program promises to be the best.—JOHN F. KERN

DETROIT—Theta

THETA CHAPTER of the University of Detroit initiated the social season at the University of Detroit by presenting to the student body its Autumn Mixer. It was attended by over 1,500 guests and resulted in great financial success as befits Deltasigs. Much of the success resulted from the work of Brother Mills who is the chapter social chairman.

Our professional program for the fall will feature speakers from industry and business from the Detroit area. Also, our professional chairman, Brother Grundei, has on the agenda scheduled trips to either General Motors Technical Center or the Ford Motor Company.

The brothers of Theta Chapter are pledging ten men this semester who are of great potential caliber as Deltasigs. They are certain to be a credit both to their school and Delta Sigma Pi.—WILLIAM P. MILTON

OKLAHOMA

THE BETA EPSILON CHAPTER at the University of Oklahoma started off the fall semester with a new group of officers. Election was held at the last meeting of the Chapter last spring, brothers holding office are Dick Holley, president; Bob Thompson, senior vice-president; Bill Barrow, junior vice-president; Clarence Poe, treasurer; Charles Daily, secretary; Kent Swaim, historian; Robert Croak, chancellor.

The Beta Epsilon Chapter has just finished a very successful rush, pledges are: Joe Maldonado, Bob Benedict, Larry Garrison, Mark Files, Jerry Maddux, Ralph Bowyer, Robert Sveska, Dennis Kestner, Marshall Gerber, Ray Melahn, Richard Holden, Charles Orth, Milan Yovanovic, Warren Young, and Professor Wilson B. Prickett. Professor Prickett is the assistant Dean of the College of Business Administration as has been the case the last two years the membership votes to invite an outstanding faculty to join our Fraternity each year. Professor Prickett is an instructor in the department of finance.

This year, as in the years past, we are continuing a program of business and professional meetings to keep the membership up to date on changes in today's modern business world. Of course the selection of the Rose of Deltasig, and the banquet that follows are important features of our social program.

Again we are quite pleased to place first in the Chapter Efficiency Contest. We wish to thank Dr. Ronald Shuman for his generous gift to us. We hope we can finish on top this year too.

The last of this semester and the spring semester will be loaded with many activities and the membership is looking forward to: initiation, Rose of Deltasig, spring rush, and the many professional meetings all promising us a great year.—BOB THOMPSON

PENNSYLVANIA

AFTER A DIET of paint fumes and plaster dust during the summer, the brothers of Beta Nu Chapter were glad to again take out the books. Most of the hot summer days were spent renovating the "shabby lady" of Spruce street, and now more than ever before, the unity and spirit of Beta Nu Chapter is under a common roof. Each and every brother deserves the highest praise for his untiring efforts to make 3932 the "lovely lady" she is today.

Our professional program got off to a good start with the highlight being a talk by Mr. Ashenfelder of the Sun Oil Company Industrial Relations Department. It was interesting to learn of the labor and foreign problems which this company meets in their daily operation. Chairman Guy Cooper and Bill Roehl are to be congratulated for their efforts in the professional program.

Brother Sam Stearly organized a bang-up "Beatnik" party in November while his wife gave birth to a 7 pound boy. Other social activities in our new house have been frequent and certainly more enjoyable in our own house. On October 7, a party and dinner was given in honor of the Beta Nu Association with an attendance of over 80.

At this writing, eight men are actively engaged in pledge training. Knowing the qualifications of each man, we are all confident that each will uphold the highest standards of Delta Sigma Pi and of Beta Nu Chapter.

On the last day of the old year our confirmed batchelor Brother, Bob Downs, will ring out the old and be WRUNG into the new. Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Downs. All the brothers of Beta Nu Chapter gratefully acknowledge the excellent leadership and efforts of our President, August Merlina, who has been successfully leading the vanguard of determined men since June.—RICHARD T. HARDING

MICHIGAN STATE

THE GAMMA KAPPA CHAPTER of Michigan State University has thus far experienced a highly successful term and all indications point to a promising future.

We began our Fall term with a nucleus of capable officers who are as follows: President Gerald H. Babcock, Senior Vice President Peter Gordon Link, Vice President Ronald Rosenbaum, Treasurer James Whaley, Secretary Larry Schlapfer, House Manager Bob Ritter, Historian Charles Ellis, Social Chairman Tom Yonkers, Professional Chairman Dan Dupuis, Scholarship Chairman Lenny Fisher, and Stewart Lee Schmidt.

Our professional activities so far have consisted of a talk, by Mr. J. H. Pohl, on life and business insurance. Mr. Pohl's talk was very informative as to the value of life insurance in connection with the college student. For the remainder of the semester we plan to schedule a talk by visiting Bell Telephone executives.

Our chapter, being civic minded, has gone all out to support Paul Bagwell for Michigan's governor. Several of the brothers donated a pint of blood to help with the campaign funds. Mr. Bagwell has honored several of our brothers with his personalized thanks for our help.

The social events have to date included a pledge party, and several date parties. At this point, plans are in progress for the big social event of the season, our dinner dance on February 4, 1961.

With great anticipation we are looking forward to the continuance of a good year with a well rounded program of both professional and social activities.—GERALD H. BABCOCK

GEORGIA STATE

KAPPA CHAPTER at Georgia State College of Business Administration successfully celebrated Founders' Day with an address after dinner at the Deltasig Lodge. The speaker Dr. David Schwartz was introduced by Dr. "Mike" Mescon. Both of these brothers are highly respected faculty members and are recognized experts in their fields. It was our honor to have as a guest Grand President Homer T. Brewer. The 100 brothers and their dates were entertained by our pledges who presented their customary Pledge Skit.

Our professional meetings this quarter have been noted for the quality of the speakers. The first meeting was addressed by Mr. Zack Cravey, Comptroller General of the State of Georgia; and the second by Brother Harold Duncan, Southeastern Director of Personnel Management for the Veterans Administration. Mr. Cravey spoke about "Trends in Government" and Brother Duncan spoke about "Creative Thinking." The Atlanta Alumni Club joined the active chapter in sponsoring these events and we were rewarded by an attendance of 50 at each function. To be heard from yet is Mr. Clifford Clarke, President of the Associated Industries of Georgia.

Relations with the alumni have been particularly close this quarter due to the aforementioned joint professional meetings and two very special social functions, the Annual Bar-B-Q (225 attended) and a dinner-dance (180 attended). Kappa Chapter is now looking forward to another dinner-dance and the Annual Christmas Party. A very special event is due in January: Boss Night, to be held at the Atlanta Athletic Club, at which Dr. Noah N. Langdale, President of Georgia State College of Business Administration, will be the featured speaker.

As a result of a special effort on the part of Kappa Chapter, it is our pleasure to announce that the following school and class offices are held by Deltasig: President Day School Student Council, Ed Timmerman; President Night School Student Council, Ted Kennedy; Vice President Night School Student Council, Charles Steed; President Day School Senior Class, Delton Harden; Vice President Night School Senior Class, Leonard Nelms; President Night School Junior Class, Jim Conner; Vice President Night School Junior Class, Glen Miller; Treasurer Night School Junior Class, George Warren; Secretary Night School Junior Class, Dick Foote; President Night School Sophomore Class, Billy Redd. We are quite proud of these men and think that they typify the leadership inherent in Delta Sigma Pi.—RUSSELL H. MILLER

LOYOLA—Los Angeles

FOR DELTA SIGMA CHAPTER, the semester has been a busy one. On September 26, the rushing season started with a business meeting in Loyola's student center. The guest speaker was Mr. Neil Peterson, a branch manager for Prudential Life Insurance, who spoke on "How to Take an Interview." About ten of the actives and five or six prospective pledges attended the meeting.

The second rushing function was a party at the American Legion Hall. Again the actives and prospective pledges got together and talked over fraternity life.

Then on October 18, the Formal Pledge ceremonies took place and four new pledges came into being. These being Dennis Carroll, Ron Sievers, Peter Cotter, and Joe Julien. The event took place in the Student Center. From then on the pledges have been working tediously to keep the actives happy.

The parties for the semester also got off to a good start with a pre-party for Loyola's Brawl Ball on September 30 at Jim Nichol's house to which some of the prospective pledges were invited. Next was a big party called "Manhattan Mania" on October 8 at Dwight Curran's apartment. This was followed by a pre-party for Loyola's Halloween Dance, on October 28 at Egon Zwierlein's house. The actives with their wives, fiancées, or dates attended along with the four pledges. The next party was given by the pledges for the actives on November 4 at Jim Nichol's house. Then on November 18, a pre-party for the Halloween Dance was given at Dave Fortune's apartment. It turned out very successful with most of the nineteen actives, the four pledges, and our sponsor, Mr. Norman Weir, attending.

Delta Sigma also got in on the Queen Campaigning by sponsoring Miss Lydia Schacht, a freshman from St. Vincents College of Nursing. With an overwhelming campaign set up by Tony Abbate, Miss Schacht was elected a princess for Loyola's Homecoming, of which Mr. Peter Kruse, our president, is chairman.—BRUCE BROWN

KENT STATE

BETA PI CHAPTER at Kent State University feels very optimistic about the future. We have the largest and, we believe, the best pledge class on campus. Pledging only upper classmen and transfer students, we have pledged 12 worthy prospects, all with at least 2.75 accumulative point averages. It is through them and the other young men in our chapter that we hope to build for the future.

Due to a University ruling, we are forced to make an addition to our chapter house in order to accommodate a resident house mother. Our plan is to add two new bedrooms for fraternity members and complete accommodations for a house mother. This addition would raise our total number of residents to 25, giving us one of the largest houses on Kent State Campus.

Beta Pi Chapter is very pleased to report that the new dean of the College of Business Administration has given his full support to Delta Sigma Pi. Through his great interest and our own initiative, Beta Pi Chapter feels it will make great advances during the years ahead.—GARY E. PAYNE

NORTHWESTERN—Evanston

UPON ARRIVAL at the house this fall before rush week, the brothers of Zeta Chapter were pleased to learn that we had ranked eighth out of 44 living units in both scholarship and intramurals for the 1959-60 school year. Having had a successful rush week, we hope to do even better with 19 new pledges. Because we took league championship in football last year, we moved to a higher league this year where we took third place. In wrestling, the only other intramural sport held so far this year, we captured second place in all-school competition.

We started our social schedule on October 15, with a Nautical Party at the Chicago Yacht Club attended by 48 brothers and their dates in nautical costumes ranging from ducks to deep sea divers. On November 12, we held our Open House and Homecoming Party, much of the success of which is due to the many alumni that attended. Our big party of the year that we are looking forward to is the "Rose" Formal, to be held during winter quarter, January 28, 1961 at the Tower Club in Chicago.

To round out our program with professional activities, the brothers heard Dr. Dennis McElrath, visiting professor at Northwestern, give a talk about his recent trip to Russia. Next quarter we are looking forward to an active program both in the professional field and in social activities and intramurals.—MICKEY CLAMPIT

DE PAUL

ALPHA OMEGA CHAPTER at Chicago presented its annual JARABE in the Grand Ballroom of the Sheraton Hotel on October 22. At the dance, Miss Patti Pappathatos, last year's "Rose," crowned Miss Nancy Mikolas as "Rose," for the coming year. Our two "Rose Buds" are Miss Judy Cahill and Miss Kathy Nolan.

The success of the JARABE was due to the selfless generosity and energy of Brother Don Kilton and his committee who received gratifying support from the other active brothers.

"Market Research" was the topic discussed at our November meeting when we were privileged to have Mr. Morris Robinson of Industrial Publications as our speaker. Brother James Thomson of The Central Office also said a few words concerning chapter activities and the relation of the chapter with The Central Office. Further speakers are planned for the December and January meetings and a tour of the Sun Times Building sponsored by our pledges is also scheduled for December.

We are happy to say that we have won the inter-fraternity football tournament which we sponsored in October. During the winter months, we will enter the intramural basketball tournament plus two other fraternity tournaments we won last year.

Brother Dennis Baron is the director of the play "Harvey" which will be presented by the brothers on December 11. Proceeds will be given to the Christmas Basket Fund.

During the fall we held the JARABE AFTERMATH, an informal party to reward the brothers for their fine work on the JARABE. A number of other social events are planned for the near future, the first being an alumni-active party on November 18 to promote closer relations among our alumni and active brothers.

At present, we have eight pledges who should be a real credit to our chapter and the fraternity. While pledging, they have ample opportunity to discover that "he profits most who serves best."—FRANK W. BAUER

NEBRASKA

ALPHA DELTA CHAPTER began the first semester with 43 members answering the roll call. After a smoker and a stag, 16 men were pledged.

Delta Sigma Pi participated in the annual Bus. Ad. Careers Day and Banquet. Brother Frank May, chairman of the Executive Council, directed this year's Bus. Ad. Careers Day. This is one of the biggest events in the year for the College of Business Administration. Its purpose is to acquaint the students with the various aspects of the business world.

At our first professional dinner on October 3, 1960, we had Mr. Warren Hinze from a local accounting firm speak on "Tax Accounting." On Founders' Day we had our second professional dinner and a talk about banking by Mr. Walter Nolte, executive vice-president of the First Continental National Bank and Trust Company of Lincoln. These were both very informative talks. On October 31, 1960, Mr. Bill Kimbal of a local real estate firm spoke at the house about his business field, that of real estate. He created much interest in this facet of business.

Interviews are now being given to select the five final candidates to appear at our "Rose" Formal, which will be held in April of 1961. We had a beatnik party on November 18, 1960, at a local steakhouse.

The professional tour this semester was taken to Kansas City, Kansas, where the brothers toured Buick, Oldsmobile and Pontiac Assembly Plants, Board of Trade, and The District Federal Reserve Bank. Saturday we toured Hallmark cards and then journeyed to the Kansas vs. Nebraska football game at Lawrence. We returned to Lincoln following the game.

Fourteen members and pledges made the migration trip to Colorado to see the Colorado vs. Nebraska football game. The following weekend 15 Alumni were on hand in Lincoln to witness our homecoming football game between Missouri and Nebraska. The most distant coming from Colorado and Minnesota.

Our intramural football team lost all four football games, the first by one point, while all the rest were by only one touchdown. The brothers have been practicing for the intramural basketball championships which is beginning next week. As of now 25 members have signed up for the team.—RAY BULIN and JIM STROBL

LAMBDA CHAPTER at the University of Pittsburgh celebrated the world championship victory of the Pittsburgh Pirates earlier than most Pittsburghers. The occasion was a night baseball game between the Pirates and the Braves on September 30, sponsored by the Pittsburgh Alumni Club.

We were gratified with the fine attendance at our first professional meeting of the school year, which was held on September 16. President Edward Langer outlined suggested plans for the coming year. We viewed with interest a most informative film, "Music in Motion," produced by The Bell System. A professional and social meeting was held on October 21. It was sports night. The guest speakers were Frank Gustine, former Pittsburgh Pirate star third baseman and John Coleman, Director of Athletics at Westinghouse Electric Corporation and football scout for Michigan State. To complete the evening we also enjoyed films about the Baseball Hall of Fame and Pitt Football Highlights of 1959.

Our Lambda Chapter members this year have participated in social and professional activities. As in the past several years, Brother Langer heads our contingent of members at all our home football games. In a professional capacity, President Langer attended the East Central Regional Meeting held in Dayton, Ohio, on October 28 and 29.

We are looking forward to the highlight of the current school year. A dinner meeting will be held during the evening of November 12, honoring Dr. E. Grosvenor Plowman, Vice President-Traffic, United States Steel Corporation. Dr. Plowman was Delta-sig of 1959.—JOSEPH D. HONEKER

EAST CAROLINA

UNDER THE LEADERSHIP of Tom Reese, president of the Delta Zeta Chapter, the Coastal Plains Chapter of Certified Public Accountants was invited to hold a meeting on the campus of East Carolina College as guests of Delta Sigma Pi. The joint meeting proved most interesting and entertaining as well. Miss Betty Lane Evans, former Miss North Carolina, provided entertainment for the occasion. The brothers had the opportunity of meeting some of the prominent CPA's in this section. Miss Gwendolyn Potter, CPA member and faculty member in the School of Business, spoke on proposed changes in educational requirements for CPA's in N.C. These proposals will be presented before the State legislature in the spring of 1961.

In early October we held our rush smoker for the fall quarter. A number of prospective Deltasigs responded. The pledge period lasted eight weeks and the weekend of November 12, five pledge paddles were turned in when the following brothers were formally initiated into Delta Sigma Pi. These new brothers are Mac Burris, Joe Hudnell, Gale Koonce, J. W. Moore and Stewart Odum.

President Reese recently attended the Southeastern Regional Meeting of Delta Sigma Pi held in Columbia, South Carolina.

Tom gave a detailed report of the meeting on his return, and told of the many fine Deltasig brothers he met at this conference.

Among some past professional tours, the chapter toured the Ford Motor Company in Norfolk, Virginia, the home office of the Occidental Life Insurance Company in Raleigh, N.C. and plans are underway to make a tour through the Fifth District Federal Reserve Bank in Richmond, Va.

Delta Zeta Chapter won second place in the float contest sponsored by the Student Government Association in conjunction with the past homecoming festivities. The theme of the entire parade was "TV Titles." Delta Zeta Chapter's winning entry was built around the theme of "Alfred Hitchcock Presents."—WALTER C. FAULKNER

TULSA

DELTASIGS returned to campus this Fall, staffing an information booth for the benefit of incoming new students.

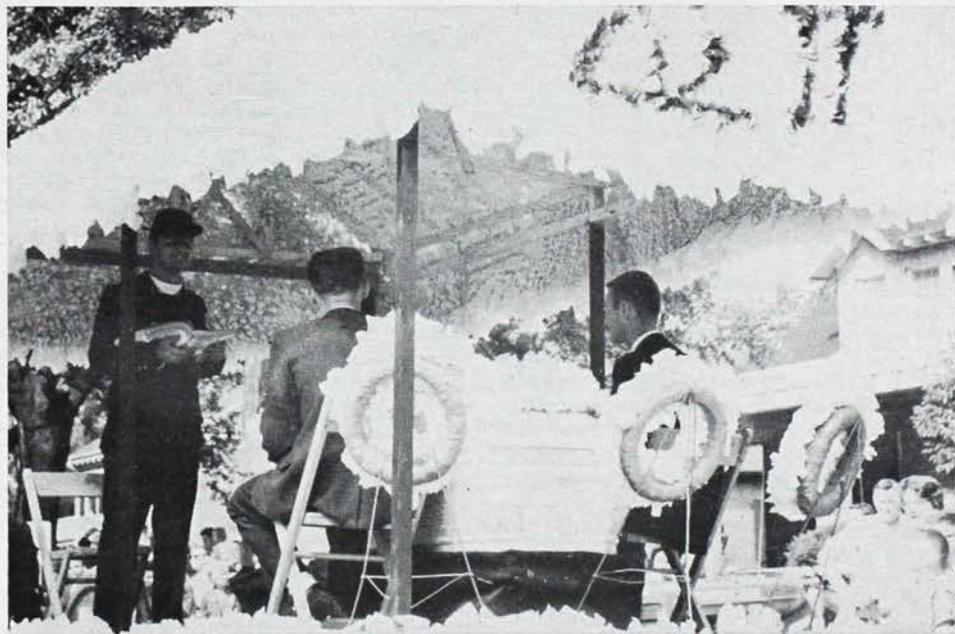

Fall rush parties have produced many potential neophytes. There were two guest speakers at our first rush party: M. M. Hargrove, dean of the College of Business Administration; and John Gemmill, professor of management; both of whom are Deltasigs.

Three of our fellow chapter brothers have had honors conferred upon them recently. Monte Dunham, chapter president; Dion Gantt; and James Farrell, were selected to be among those students from Tulsa University who will be included in Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges.

During December, the chapter will be busy helping to plan and participating in the 55th Anniversary of the Founding of the College of Business Administration of T.U. Near the Christmas season we will again conduct a drive for food for needy older people.

Tentative date for the initiation of our pledges is set for January 8.—HAROLD COLE

DELTA ZETA CHAPTER at East Carolina College takes its football serious. Here they are shown at services for the rivals in the homecoming parade.

ILLINOIS

UNDER THE DIRECTION of President Piskie, three new committees were formed which will stimulate more interest and enable Upsilon Chapter to operate more efficiently. Brother Hamilton heads the Special Projects Committee which discusses and then presents to the chapter any ideas and projects that have been suggested to them. As a result, several ideas have been proposed and acted upon which may not have been brought up. The Planning Committee under the direction of Brother Eicksteadt plans the activities and events of the chapter a semester in advance. And the new Attendance and Arrangements Committee makes sure that all members and pledges are personally notified of meetings and makes all arrangements for the meetings.

Twenty-three men were pledged to Upsilon Chapter at our first professional meeting. Mr. Ziv, an accounting executive with the brokerage firm of Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner, and Smith, spoke to the actives and new pledges on the nature and operation of the stock market. In addition to explaining the various aspects of the stock market, he cited several personal experiences which made the talk both more informative and interesting. The members thought the talk was very interesting, as evidenced by the length of time several of the brothers had him cornered after he finished speaking and answering questions. For the remainder of the semester a full schedule of professional meetings has been planned.

Other highlights of the semester are our student-faculty luncheons, which have been very well attended. Also, Senior Vice-President Eicksteadt attended the Central Regional meeting in Chicago on October 29-30. With the new committees, an increased interest, and very promising pledge class, Upsilon Chapter is looking forward to accomplishing much this year.—RONALD A. DICE

RUTGERS—Beta Rho

BETA RHO CHAPTER at the University College of Rutgers University held a combined affair with the Alpha Omega Chapter of Phi Chi Theta, a newly formed sorority chapter at Rutgers, as its first social of the new year. It was Beta Rho Chapter's contribution in extending an official welcome to this new chapter. Over 20 brothers and their guests were in attendance at which the Honorable Hugh Spernow, judge and Rutgers alumnus, spoke of the business world's possible contribution to successful community life.

Founders' Day was celebrated at the Beta Omicron Chapter House. The wives of the officers were responsible for the preparation of this affair. A good turnout made this an enjoyable evening of partying and dancing.

Beta Rho Chapter held several business meetings at one of which names of prospective pledges were discussed. As usual an all-out effort will be made to bring these new members into the chapter. The semester rushing party is held late in November. At a previous meeting plans were made to have as many brothers as possible attend the Eastern Regional Meeting in Newark.

Two of the chapter's brothers have been elected officers of the University College graduating class. Brother Josh Benson was elected president and brother Harry Johnson was elected treasurer.

Preparations are being made for the forthcoming rushing party and the annual Christmas party, which is to be held earlier than usual this year. All members of Beta Rho Chapter are confident that the chapter will attain once again the 100,000 points in the Chapter Efficiency Contest and everyone is working diligently towards that goal.—ROBERT NOTTE

ALABAMA

ALPHA SIGMA CHAPTER at the University of Alabama began the year by pledging 11 top young men. These pledges—William Dennis, Jesse Doyle, Austin Porter, Charles Hare, Jerry Dingle, Robert Green, Tommy Crawford, Lee Wathal, Jim Sloan, Ovid Haskins, and Bill Oakley—will be initiated on November 21.

Programs at Alpha Sigma Chapter for the coming year will be centered around the theme "Job Opportunities." Brother Frank Kohn, program chairman, is in charge of scheduling speakers from various professional fields. Each speaker will talk on opportunities his profession has to offer.

The brothers of Alpha Sigma Chapter are very proud of its "Rose," Miss Ann Martin. Ann is a senior from Memphis, Tennessee, and a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma Sorority.

Deltasigs are playing a leading role in campus affairs. Brother Bob Kelly has been recently elected president of the School of Commerce and Business Administration, three Deltasigs hold seats in the student legislature, and others have prominent positions in student government activities.—CLAUDE HARRIS

NORTHWESTERN—Chicago

"DRIVE! PROGRESS! DRIVE!"—These are the by-words at Beta Chapter this scholastic year. Every organization has its ups-and-downs, and although our trend should by the law of averages be downward, we are striving to maintain our position of "a better year" every year.

Admittedly, the efforts required to remain on top seem to multiply, and we have had a few disappointments. But the year is not over. We are confident that our list of successful accomplishments will be as impressive as they have ever been to both our alumni and the fraternity as a whole.

Our professional program has been more successful than usual. Three rushing smokers were well attended. The first smoker featured two films, "The DEW (Distant Early Warning) Live Story" and "The Nike Missile." Brother John F. Mannion, Senior V-P at the Continental Illinois National Bank, was guest speaker on the subject of "Banking Opportunities" at the second smoker. The third smoker was a timely one presenting "The Republicans and National Defense" by an attorney from the Volunteers for Nixon. Of course, the highlight of the professional program was the "Wine Tasting Dinner" on Monday, October 24, with a lecture on Italy's finest product. And there is more to come!

Socially, we have been "busy butterflies." Our annual "Bouncing Ball" on November 18, is all set for a "swaying" time aboard the anchored yacht which is the Columbia Yacht Club. Thus far, all the sororities have been our house-guests at private parties, and have enjoyed our hospitality on a hayride and a dinner-card party.

Briefly, that is our resumé of activities. Our position of responsibility and leadership on campus is still unmatched. We will be happy to report again when the opportunity arises.—THOMAS HESSER

TEMPLE

OMEGA CHAPTER has made it. There were many doubts and much speculation concerning the actives, and the finishing of the new chapter house for Homecoming Weekend. But thanks to the all night work of a couple of brothers, the living room was paneled and, most important, the recreation room was installed in the cellar. Thanks go to Brothers Clay Trainer, Chuck Flamini, Bud Sherry, John McAllister, Frank Frehmel, Tom Carey, and Jack Hutton, along with Pledges Bob Marlatt, Rich Trojan, Jim Lowrey, and Jack Martin for treating the alumni to one of the most enjoyable Homecomings in this writer's four years at Temple.

On Saturday night of Homecoming "Doc" Chamberlin was presented a plaque which dedicated the chapter house at 1737 N. Park Ave. as "his" house. Willard Moore, our chapter Advisor, told several stories and Eastern Regional Director John Marko was heard to utter several words of praise for the amazing progress shown on the modernization of the new chapter house facilities.

To top it off, Temple University's football team with Pledge Mike Boyle defeated Drexel 30-8 on a rainy Saturday afternoon.

After Homecoming, the house's eyes turned toward the Ivy Weekend. It was expected by all that the Deltasig sweetheart, Diane Yenchek, also Brother John McAllister's fiancée, would win the contest and become the Interfraternity Sweetheart for the coming year.

The Omega Chapter celebrated Founders' Day with a Picnic on the preceding Saturday night. The night's highlight was the singing of fraternity songs as the moon crept romantically across the star infested sky.—JOHN MCALLISTER, JR.

LOUISIANA STATE

A GROUP of young men and a pretty coed have aided in getting the name of Delta Sigma Pi before students at Louisiana State University.

The coed is Miss Sue Simmons, chosen by the Tiger football team as one of three finalists for the title of Homecoming Queen. The freshman from New Orleans was nominated for the honor by Beta Zeta Chapter.

The young men are 26 outstanding pledges selected from all undergraduate levels as the leaders of the chapter next year.

Neophytes were formally pledged on October 26. Following the ceremony, a Founders' Day celebration was held at the Polynesian Room in Baton Rouge. Brother Sid Rogers, secretary, presented a brief historical sketch of Delta Sigma Pi which, in addition to popular refreshments, was enjoyed by all.

Initiation was held on December 1, with the usually-highly-successful banquet following the ceremony. President Ronnie Brechtel hopes to have an outstanding "Rose" Ball this year with the brothers 'way down yonder in New Orleans.—L. DOUGLAS CAMPBELL

FLORIDA STATE

DUE TO THE FULL SUPPORT and co-operation of all the returning actives of Gamma Lambda Chapter, we pledged 34 men who we feel are a definite asset to the Fraternity. During their pledgship, they have shown great initiative in planning and building a float for the Homecoming parade. They also proved their unity and teamwork in defeating the actives in a pledge-active football game.

Our first professional meeting was a very informative question and answer period on how to organize a personal insurance plan. Our guest speaker was Mr. Ed Black, a prominent Tallahassee insurance consultant. The next week, we traveled to Foley, Florida to visit the Buckeye Cellulose Corporation. We took an informal tour of the plant and were luncheon guests of the Corporation. We have plans for the immediate future to visit the Anhauser-Busch Plant and the Henry Quidnau Advertising Agency in Tampa Florida.

On November 12, we initiated 23 pledges and three honorary members, Ed Black, prominent Tallahassee insurance consultant, Werner Baum, Dean of the Faculties at Florida State University, and Rod Shaw, Business Manager of Florida State University. Compliments are in order to Brother Leslie Grizzard for a job well done in planning and arranging the initiation banquet, which was held at the Capital City Country Club here in Tallahassee.—TOM GRIZZARD

MIAMI OF OHIO

FALL RUSH proved quite successful for Alpha Upsilon Chapter. A total of 20 men were pledged and now are busy learning Deltasig lore with pledge trainer Warren Brown keeping an eye on them. Activation will be early second semester and it is hoped that an even better Spring class can be taken.

President Bill Stallkamp has gotten activities off to a good start and November and December will be especially busy months. Two professional meetings are scheduled for November and a big field trip to the Champion Paper Co. in Hamilton, Ohio is planned for early December.

Alpha Upsilon Chapter is taking advantage of the fact that The Central Office of Delta Sigma Pi is located right here in Oxford. That big activity room is always available and will be the site of a rock and roll party on December 2, for all the brothers and their dates.

Plans are already under way for the "Rose" of Deltasig Contest. Alpha Upsilon Chapter has high hopes of entering another potential national winner as they did last year when they were so ably represented by Miss Ann Haughey.

Alpha Upsilon Chapter is in sound financial condition, and it looks as if the remainder of this semester and next semester should be very successful if it continues to pledge the best men that Miami's School of Business has to offer.—HARLOW GREGORY

IOWA

SINCE THE LAST REPORT, Epsilon Chapter has been involved in a prosperous period of scholastic and social activity. Last Spring semester was highlighted by a formal dance in May which will be repeated in the coming year. In the State University of Iowa Homecoming parade, we were represented by a float which was the successful product of many evenings of work on the part of the whole Epsilon Chapter; and on December 4, the Fall Semester will be climaxed by the initiation of 17 new Delta Sigma Pi pledges. The new pledges are an eager group and this will help maintain Epsilon Chapter's enthusiasm and interest on a high plane. In addition, Epsilon Chapter is justifiably proud of having elected Brother Nolan as a member of the Collegiate Chamber of Commerce here at Iowa.

With a slate of officers which now includes Brother Van Doren as Vice President, the "100,000 Point" Epsilon Chapter looks forward to a bright semester of academic and extracurricular achievement.—THOMAS J. MEYER

SANTA CLARA

GAMMA XI CHAPTER at the University of Santa Clara opened the Fall semester with its annual, "A Swingin' Affair." This was the first dance of the year opened to the student body. Over 150 couples danced to the music of "The Notables," a popular local band, at beautiful Mary Ann Gardens in San Jose. This function proved to be a great success as it has in the past.

The first professional meeting of the year for Gamma Xi Chapter featured John Boyse-Smith, first vice-president of the First Western Bank and Trust Company. Boyse-Smith delivered an enlightening speech on the trends of current business recessions and the measures bankers can take to curb a recession. Joseph R. McMicking, Bay Area business leader, was the distinguished speaker at the second professional meeting. Mr. McMicking is a partner in Ayala Associates in San Francisco and Ayala and Compania in Manila, P.I. He is also chairman of the board of trustees of Mermac Trust in San Francisco.

At the recent Western Regional Meeting in San Francisco the Gamma Xi Chapter was presented a plaque for obtaining 100,000 points in the Chapter Efficiency Contest. President Craig Ulrici accepted the coveted award for the chapter.

With 27 new pledges this year, the brothers are looking forward to a full schedule of social and professional activities. The orphans' Christmas party will be given December 14, the "Rose" Dance will be held January 14, and a number of other tours, lectures, and informal parties have been planned.—NICHOLAS J. HERB

NORTH CAROLINA

THOUGH SORROWED by the loss of a number of fine brothers through graduation, Alpha Lambda Chapter finds justification for increased optimism in its future through the presence of 11 fine pledges. These young men and the brothers have a spirit and congeniality which make one proud indeed to be a member of this chapter.

Under the leadership of President Bill Floyd, the chapter has made an excellent beginning in what will surely be a fine year. Last year, we were able to compile 100,000 points in the Chapter Efficiency Contest, and we look to a repetition of that fine showing this year. Socially, the chapter has shown that it is second to none, with several rousing combo parties having been already held, and with more having been planned for the future. The New-House Committee, under the leadership of Brothers Hamlet and Page, is investigating with order and direction several choices for our new home. Our Profession Committee has staged several interesting and informative dinner meetings with speakers in various areas of business and commerce. Subsequent speakers and industrial tours have been planned in accordance with our desire to fulfil the initial purpose of Delta Sigma Pi.

Again we remind all alumni that we are always glad to have them stop by to help us enjoy a rewarding and successful year.—F. WILLIAM DOOLITTLE, III

GAMMA LAMBDA CHAPTER at Florida State University entered this float in the homecoming parade. It features the Seminoles in a victory canoe.

FLORIDA

DURING ELECTIONS held last spring, the following officers were chosen for the Fall semester: President, John Gagnon; Senior Vice-President, Larry Berenfeld; Vice-President, Pat Parker; Secretary, Marshall Slaughter; Treasurer, Bernie Pescoe; and Chancellor, Dick Percy. These are brothers of demonstrated abilities and we feel that there will be many accomplishments under their direction.

The 1960 Football Season, one of the University of Florida's finest, provided the opportunity for several activities. The brothers sat in a Deltasig block for the Auburn and Tulane games and were enthusiastic in welcoming alumni brothers during Homecoming Weekend, November 11. Other activities planned are several field trips and a banquet and dance.

One field trip has been completed. This was to the new Budweiser Brewery in Tampa. During the tour of the administrative and brewing facilities, the brewing process and Budweiser's method of organization and management were explained. Credit for this enlightening trip goes to Brother Don Evans who handled the arrangements.

A highly successful pledging period ended on November 6, with formal initiation. Fourteen new brothers were initiated. We're confident that their contributions to the fraternity will be many.

Congratulations go to Brothers Tom Altman and Larry Berenfeld. Brother Altman was elected to membership in Alpha Beta Psi, national honorary accounting fraternity; and Brother Berenfeld was voted the Florida chapter's president.

Beta Eta Chapter wishes the best of the New Year to all of the Brothers of Delta Sigma Pi—KEN HARKER

MINNESOTA

ALPHA EPSILON CHAPTER has had a very successful Fall Quarter and the plans for Winter Quarter, 1961, look to be bigger and better than ever. Again this year Alpha Epsilon Chapter has assumed the responsibility for the management of Campus Carnival, a fund raising endeavor to provide deserving students with scholarships. "Carni" nets approximately $10,000 each year. The professional chairman has a Winter Quarter program planned typical of the high caliber Delta Sigma Pi is noted for. The social chairman also has a well rounded program planned to balance the quarter's activities.

The major highlight of the social program this Fall came at the annual Homecoming Dinner-Dance which this year was held at the Pick-Nicollet Hotel in downtown Minneapolis and was sponsored by the Twin Cities Alumni Club. At the dance Miss Susanna Schmidt was crowned Alpha Epsilon's "Rose of Deltasig" for 1961. Miss Schmidt was chosen from a field of five finalists and was crowned by our president Ralph Jewell. Miss Schmidt is a member of Alpha Chi Omega Sorority and is a senior in the College of Education here at the University of Minnesota.

We at Alpha Epsilon Chapter were proud to be host to 20 brothers from Epsilon Chapter of the University of Iowa who attended the Minnesota-Iowa football game on November 5. This same week-end we celebrated Founders' Day together with 20 representatives from Delta Sigma Tau of Mankato State College where we are expecting to have a Chapter established on December 10, 1960. Brother Paul Grambsch, dean of the University of Minnesota School of Business was our speaker. He spoke of the challenges facing Deltasigs in the business world both in the commercial field and in the scholastic field. Dean Grambsch called on all Deltasigs to prepare themselves to meet these challenges and to supply the leadership which will be needed in the next decade.

TEXAS TECH

IN KEEPING WITH THE GROWTH of Texas Tech, we of Beta Upsilon Chapter are expecting an active, interesting, and challenging year. The spirit and interest being shown by the 19 members of the pledge class symbolize the deep-seated love that we as members have for Delta Sigma Pi.

Our Grand President, Homer T. Brewer, visited with us on October 20, along with Joe M. Hefner, Southwestern Regional Director. It was both inspiring and entertaining to hear Brother Brewer tell of his experiences during recent visits to various chapters.

We are anxiously awaiting the big social event of the fall semester, our Founders' Day Dance. I'm sure a pleasant evening is in store for all who attend this celebration at the Palm Room here in Lubbock.

The lodge of Beta Upsilon Chapter has recently been the scene of several enjoyable evenings, particularly during Tech's Homecoming, when some 30 alumni shared with us an evening of dancing and entertainment.

Scholastic competition between the pledges and their "big brothers" is highlighted with the Scholarship Banquet each semester. So the lower of the two (gradewise) will be treating the other soon after mid-semester.

Professional activities scheduled for this semester include "Town Hall" in which a group of outstanding businessmen from the Texas Manufacturers' Association will hold a panel discussion open to all interested students and businessmen. Other professional programs include a speaker and film from Postex Mills in Post, Texas.—ROBERT W. PATTERSON

WE OF ALPHA CHAPTER have just finished renovating a new house acquired during the summer through the aid and cooperation of Alpha Omicron Pi. With a few beers, laughs, jokes, and lots of work, the house acquired a long needed plastering and painting. Furniture from our former house was brought in out of storage, and put into good use. The renovating took time and work, but it was well worth it for we are now able to plan socials, professional activities, as well as get-togethers for the alumni.

Last spring we initiated eight new brothers who provide a good nucleus for the future years. By the time the next issue of THE DELTASIG is published, Alpha Chapter will have initiated six more men thereby raising the number of brothers to 23. Future plans for the next semester include a larger rush program to increase the efficiency and scope of the chapter.

Professional activities, under the care of Brother Jeff Sanders, will begin to get into full swing this Fall semester with a visit to Remington-Rand and a speaker from the field of finance. Next semester we intend to plan a broader professional program so that we may obtain some practical knowledge from the many fields of business.

December 1, we will hold elections to fill the vacancies of President Richard Wiegand and Vice President Raymond Misunas who will graduate this January. The brothers of Alpha Chapter wish to say thanks for the roles you played in helping Alpha Chapter when it needed it the most.—PETER J. CECCHINI

ALPHA ETA CHAPTER is very proud to announce its victory with regard to the Dakota Day (homecoming) celebration. The chapter demonstrated its resourcefulness and ambition by placing number ONE with its homecoming float. In addition, Brother Jack Phillips deserves honorable mention for the job he performed as Dakota Day Publicity Chairman, in helping to make it one of the most successful celebrations to date.

During these first few weeks of the semester, we have been successful in adding 18 neophytes to our roster of 44 active members. The chapter thus far not only has been very enthusiastic concerning the potential of each individual, but impressed with the unity of the entire pledge class. They will be initiated December 16.

Scholastically, Alpha Eta Chapter ranked well above the University's all men's average last semester, as it has numerous times in the past. Several of our members were honored last spring at the School of Business Banquet as excelling in one field or another within the business school as well as on a campus wide level. Jay Wein, James Menzel, Kurt Christensen, William Schlinggen and Gene Albery were among those honored.

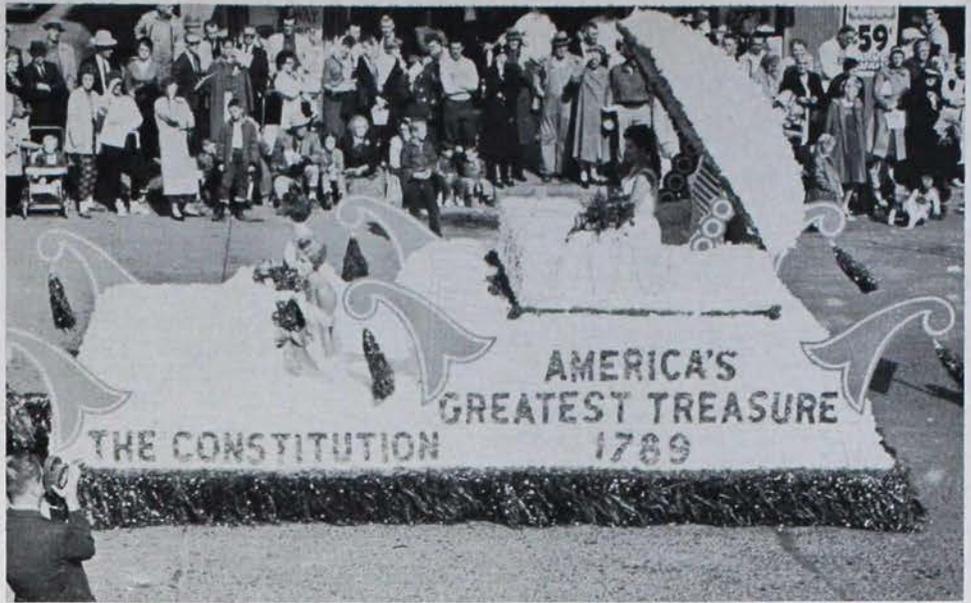

December 19, has been set aside to visit several Sioux Falls, S. Dakota industrial attractions, as the fall field trip. Among other things, we will visit a penitentiary, the Great Lakes Pipe Line Terminal and a private accounting firm. Also, later in the year our chapter will be on hand to assist in the Miles Of Dimes benefit held in Sioux Falls. Last year, from this benefit, the fraternity gave the Crippled Children's Hospital $250 as a result of its efforts in the collection of contributions.—RICHARD E. BRINK

BABSON

GAMMA UPSILON CHAPTER at Babson Institute is celebrating Founders' Day with a host of activities. In the afternoon the Brotherhood and their dates will attend the Harvard-Brown football game. A reception at the Charterhouse Motel followed by our Founders' Day Dance at the Hotel Lenox in Boston rounds out the day. Our extremely capable social committee headed by Brothers Rappaport and Bullock have planned a full season of events. On December 3, Gamma Upsilon Chapter is sponsoring an all-school dance featuring Stan Rubin and his famous Tiger Town Five. The dance is being held in the Grand-ballroom of the Hotel Bradford, in Boston, which is the largest ballroom in New England.

Fall term has found Gamma Upsilon Chapter pledging five men all of whom we believe will be a credit to Delta Sigma Pi. By the next issue of THE DELTASIG we will have our usual large winter pledge class. A good start in the Chapter Efficiency Contest was recorded and the brotherhood is striving for another 100,000 point year.

Winter term will find Gamma Upsilon Chapter trying to win the Winter Carnival Float Contest for the fourth consecutive year, initiating new members and carrying out a full program of professional and social events.—IRWIN B. ABRAMSON

BAYLOR

THE BETA IOTA CHAPTER at Baylor started the present school year full of eager anticipation. The new $1,050,000 Hankamer School of Business Building is nearing completion, and present plans indicate that it will be one of the most modern of its type in the United States. The date set for occupying the building has not yet been announced but is presumed to be early in the Spring semester. Mr. Curtis Hankamer, a Deltasig, along with his father, Mr. Earl C. Hankamer, are the donors of the building. Deltasig can certainly be proud in counting Curtis among its most illustrious alumni.

Baylor University held its annual Homecoming on October 22. Many alumni Deltasigs attended and were very elated to view our beautiful "Rose" for this year, Miss Ouida Massey, gracefully adorning Beta Iota Chapter's float in the Homecoming parade. The theme of the float was "Bear in the Box" alluding to Baylor's hope of winning the Southwest Conference this year.

The Fall semester finds Beta Iota Chapter very active in the organization and administration of the Hankamer School of Business student body. The president of the student body is Brother Maurice Collins and the Executive Council's three places are occupied by Brothers Frank Thornton, Jarred Sloan, and Orion Foster. The Executive Council and the president of the student body work in close harmony with Brother Aldon S. Lang, dean of the Hankamer School of Business.

There are 31 active members in Beta Iota Chapter this fall with 9 pledges. The pledges include Glen Ford, Charles Bailey, Kenneth Long, Charles Burton, Artie Giotes, Kent Cardwall, Jimmy Ferris, Fred Churchill, and George Montague.

Activity got into full swing when Deltasig sponsored the "Brothers Four" along with the Student Union on October 8. After the performance, Beta Iota, chapter was host at a stag party held in the Raleigh Hotel. Pictures were taken of the members and the "Brothers Four," and all reported a very good time.

The annual Hankamer School of Business field trip will occur earlier this year, the date having been set for December 7. Beta Iota Chapter chartered one bus for the trip and is active in promoting this educational opportunity among students of the Hankamer School of Business. The trip this year will be to Dallas, one of Texas' industrial centers.

The members of Beta Iota Chapter would like to take this opportunity to extend an invitation to all our brothers to visit our chapter and see our magnificent new building.—FRANK THORNTON

MIAMI—Florida

BETA OMEGA CHAPTER at the University of Miami started off the year with two successful rush parties at the home of Brother Lamar. We accepted 25 pledges, all of whom have taken an interest in Deltasig and have the potential to make good members.

A total of 45 brothers and pledges attended the school homecoming dance. Prior to the dance we held a cocktail party for the brothers and their dates. Brother Lamar, our social chairman, has been working hard and has been doing an excellent job.

We have a full year of professional activities planned. We also have arranged for a number of speakers from the Miami area to visit us. Our first speaker of the year was Mr. Louis Miller of the placement service who spoke on job opportunities for business school graduates.

A brother and a pledge were recently tapped by one of the men's honoraries on our campus. Chancellor, Ted Klein, and Allen Robbins were recognized for their scholastic and leadership abilities. We are very proud of these men. They are but one example of the ability of the men in Delta Sigma Pi.—MARTIN MORGANSTEIN

OHIO STATE

NU CHAPTER'S first professional meeting of the Autumn quarter was one of the most interesting that we have had. It was also successful in terms of rushees, as 12 men expressed an interest in Delta Sigma Pi. The meeting consisted of a plant tour to the Western Electric Company. As a result of its success, eight rushees returned for our second meeting, which was an address by Miss Smith of the department of speech concerning the use of speech in business. Miss Smith also spoke on interviewing and this was most enlightening, especially to the seniors.

Nu Chapter is taking an active role in school activities this quarter. We have members in campus organizations such as The Society for the Advancement of Management, Commerce Council, The Retailing Club, The Insurance Society, and The International Trade Club. We feel proud that the brothers take such a strong interest in campus activities, especially commerce activities, because it promotes a stronger relationship between Delta Sigma Pi and the University.

We also have many social events, such as our last Halloween party. The social chairman has planned many social events for the year, including hayrides, holiday parties and other get-togethers. Our social program is a complete success due to the fine planning and organization of Brother Brotzman.—KENT R. WILLIAMS

LAMAR TECH

DELTA ETA CHAPTER at Lamar State College of Technology has been busy since the start of the Fall semester. The chapter held two rush parties in October and has accepted a fine group of pledges. The officers of Delta Eta Chapter attended the Southwestern Regional meeting in Dallas the first and second of October and reported that they gained valuable information on chapter administration and also enjoyed their stay in Dallas.

DELTA RHO CHAPTER float at Ferris Institute in Big Rapids, Michigan, featured "His Master's Voice."

Founders' Day was celebrated with a dinner-dance at the Ridgewood Motel in Beaumont. The social committee was congratulated on its fine work in the preparation for this annual function.

Brothers and pledges alike worked hard in obtaining the 100,000 points in the Chapter Efficiency Contest last year and in winning first place this fall in the Small Boat Division of Lamar Tech's Homecoming Parade for the third successive time.

ARIZONA

GAMMA PSI CHAPTER at the University of Arizona has reached a point where it now stands as a major influence on campus. At present, Brother Jim Ferguson holds the presidency of both our chapter and serves as president of the College of Business and Public Administration, while Brother Charles Gildersleeve serves as president of the Area Development Club and as vice-president of the Business College. In fact, Deltasigs compose over one-third of the BPA Student Council.

This chapter had 100% attendance at our breakfast meeting October 20, when both actives and neophytes turned out at 6:30 A.M. to meet and talk to Grand President Homer T. Brewer. The day before, Regional Director "Buzz" Sutton brought Brother Brewer down from Phoenix and they both had lunch with members of the Tucson Alumni Club. In the evening the officers of both the Tucson Alumni Club and Gamma Psi Chapter had a combined administrative conference and party with Brother Homer giving us ideas he had picked up during his travels to the many chapters constituting the International Fraternity of Delta Sigma Pi.

At the Inter-Mountain Regional Conference held at Albuquerque in November

President Jim represented both Arizona chapters and claims that after talking with the other chapter representatives he is convinced that this Region will have all chapters tied for first place when the Chapter Efficiency Contest standings are published next summer.

We are now deeply involved in plans to celebrate the first decade of our chapter next fall when we complete ten years on November 3, 1961.

At our Dinner-Dance November 12, 1960, jointly celebrating Founders' Day and the chapter birthday, Patty Oliver, secretary to our secretary, Don Oliver was introduced as this chapter's "Rose of Deltasig" and was presented a bouquet of red roses by Rose Goodwin, who served as "Rose" in 1958.

We welcome Dr. Robert Marshall as our Faculty Advisor and regret that Dr. Gilbert Gifford is stepping down, but we have been assured that he will be available for assistance as long as we need him.—CHARLES BLISS

FERRIS

"VOICE OF THE MASTER" was the mighty motif depicted in Delta Rho Chapter's float entry this year at Ferris Institute's annual homecoming celebration. Delta Rho Chapter's float was a proud entry in the competition as it respectfully paraded up the main street of Big Rapids, Michigan, displaying the reverent colors and letters of our Delta Sigma Pi. The men of Delta Rho Chapter were proud of their float, for they, unlike the admiring public, saw in it more than just the superficial composition which crepe paper and chicken wire presented. With their hearts they saw the memories of much fun which each individual will carry with himself throughout the coming years. With their eyes they momentarily saw the results of many days and nights of planning and working together to meet the ever imminent deadline. "Teamwork" was the password for entry to their secluded workshop in a small barn just outside of Big Rapids, Michigan. And teamwork it was, for this little red barn witnessed the organized assembly of "Voice of the Master Victor" from drawing board to reality.

Although Delta Rho Chapter is a relatively young chapter, founded May 16, 1959, its members nevertheless manifest the same industrious spirit that has always been a distinguishing attribute of Delta Sigma Pi on college campuses throughout the nation. The 1961 school year is anticipated as an eventful one for the men of Delta Rho Chapter. Their float was just the prelude to the many fraternity projects which they plan to enjoy in the ensuing months. Next on their activity calendar will be the "Rose of Deltasig" Ball. Due to the fact that the Ball is an important function, preparations were started early in the year. In their spare time, the members of Delta Rho Chapter participate in Ferris' intramural activities. The membership is composed of real workers who are constantly striving to be a credit to the International Fraternity of Delta Sigma Pi.—DONALD P. COLIZZI

RUTGERS—Beta Omicron

BETA OMICRON CHAPTER at the Rutgers University School of Business Administration is enthusiastic over plans to purchase a new chapter house. The structure has been chosen and voted upon, and all the brothers are now awaiting "moving day" with eagerness. We wish to extend our sincere thanks to all the alumni who gave so willingly of their time in order to insure the success of this venture.

MISS JO ALAIMO, "Rose of Deltasig" of Beta Omicron Chapter at Rutgers University, is shown after this chapter's Founders' Day Formal.

Our Founders' Day Formal was held on November 12, 1960, with a fine turnout by both the active brothers and the alumni. Lovely Miss Jo Alaimo was proclaimed the "Rose of Deltasig" of Beta Omicron Chapter.

The Eastern Regional Meeting was held in Newark this year and we were happy to host a buffet for the other delegations, at our chapter house. Beta Omicron Chapter's own delegation commented on the benefits of attending this conference, and we hope the ideas taken home from this affair will help us in attaining our goal of 100,000 points in the Chapter Efficiency Contest.

At this writing, we are beginning preparations for our second annual Orphan's Christmas Party. The brothers are working hard to make this year's party a big success once again.—THOMAS MINERO

BOSTON COLLEGE

DELTA KAPPA CHAPTER, under the guidance of Senior Vice President Dick Healy, started off the academic year with a very successful rush period in which 110 rushees were screened. Due to this large number, the board and the membership could afford to be very selective and as a result a fine pledge class of 24 men was presented to Vice President Tom Hynes. Those pledges who survive the seven weeks of pledging will be initiated on December 3.

The social season began with a party at the Gamma Chapter House. On October 29, the annual Halloween Masquerade Dance was held and was, due to the stellar efforts of Social Chairman Tom Adams, quite successful. On November 12, we celebrated Founders' Day with a party after the Boston College-Boston University tilt. While we are on the subject of football, we should mention that the brothers for the second time in two years handed our on campus competition, Alpha Kappa Psi, a resounding defeat in this sport. It's really too bad since they're such "nice fellows."

Professional Chairman John Clark has planned for us a most interesting program this year. On November 1, the program began with a tour of the I.B.M. Building in Boston. This semester we have a fine array of speakers to meet with us. Among these business leaders are: Mr. James F. Byrne, manager of Logan International Airport; Mr. Silvester Maio, district director of Lever Brothers, Inc. and Mr. Gregory Plunkett, sales manager for Eastman Dillon Union Securities, Inc.

Last year was the first time that Delta Kappa Chapter reached the coveted 100,000 point mark in Chapter Efficiency Contest. A great deal of the credit for our past performance is due to former President Pete Johnson and past Chapter Efficiency Contest Chairman Rick Pierce. This year we have an equally competent President Bob O'Neil and a most efficient chairman of the Chapter Efficiency Contest in John O'Hearn. It seems to this writer that the chapter has developed the 100,000 point habit and plans to stay among the top chapters for a long time. In closing, we at Boston College would like to extend our best wishes for all possible success to all Deltasigs everywhere.—PAUL F. VALZANIA

LOUISIANA TECH

BETA PSI CHAPTER recently held the Spring Rush Party. Miss Carolyn Michaud, Beta Psi Chapter "Rose" for 1959-60, was present to award the special Pearl Badge to Miss Jan Barnett, our new "Rose," who was awarded the title of Miss "Rose of Deltasig" by Beta Psi Chapter at the "Rose" Ball, held in Monroe on April 2. The prospective pledges were shown films of our last "big" field trip to Houston, Texas on April 21, 22, and 23, where the brothers toured Sheffield Steel Plant, Foley's Department Store, and other points of interest.

Members initiated last spring are: Gene Bryson, Phillip Fincher, Bob Wilson, Bryce Turnley, Steve Street, Larry Bowman, Ron Updegraff, Edgar Bornman, John Slater, Adrian Odom, Turner Almond, and John Roberson. This semester we have pledged 12 students and one faculty member, which will bring our membership to 45 actives and 13 faculty. For this reason Beta Psi Chapter is beginning a housing project which will establish our chapter even more permanently.

In connection with this, we have started a Housing Fund. Through various money-raising plans, we will raise the money for our house over a period of years. Two money-raising schemes already in process are the voluntary contributions by Beta Psi Chapter alumni and faculty, and the selling of Christmas cards by the chapter. On November 3, we celebrated Founders' Day; on November 6, Beta Psi Chapter held the Annual Breakfast for chapter pledges, members, and alumni at the Louisiana Tech Student Center. Alumni present were John Westbrook, Gayle Wells, Thomas Hardee, Don Craig, Don Farrow, Bob Ward, Harold Byrd, and Harold Bledsoe; each gave a short speech concerning his company's advantages and job opportunities.

Beta Psi Chapter looks forward to another successful year of service, with high hopes of again becoming a 100,000 point chapter.—DONALD W. BRIGHT

CINCINNATI

ALPHA THETA CHAPTER's professional program has included a plant tour of the Middleton, Ohio plant of Armco Steel, a bipartisan talk by a political aspirant of local interest, and an office tour of American Laundry Machine Co.

Equally interesting programs are planned for the future. These are only a few of the programs that are being planned for the next few months: attendance of a business machine exhibition, a high school principal to talk of his tour of the U.S.S.R., a speaker from the office of the Hamilton County Prosecutor, and a representative of the TVA. Our chapter votes a straight-ticket "yes" for Lou Albiez and his committee.

Our social program is as active as our professional program. The Founders' Day Dance was an overwhelming success. Approximately 65 couples from the active chapter, The Delta Dames, the Alumni Club, and the pledge class attended the dance. Having planned the dance, the Delta Dames were responsible for its success.

Professional Chairman Dean Muir, is quite busy planning future activities. He is presently planning the informal initiation, a New Year's Eve party, and the "Rose" Dance. Our pledge class is working as a committee for the arrangements of a Christmas party for an orphanage. Our chapter votes a straight-ticket "yes" for Dean, his committees, and the Delta Dames, also.—BRUCE I. FORRESTER

LOYOLA—Chicago

GAMMA PI CHAPTER is again embarking on another great year, both professionally and socially. Gamma Pi Chapter is 55 strong with 10 neophytes who by all indication will be a credit to the fraternity.

In the professional field, we are again making great strides toward the broadening of commercial knowledge. Toward the end of the political campaign, we sponsored a debate between two Harvard lawyers, Lowell Sackennoff, Democrat, and J. Robert Barr, Republican. Interest in the debate was high as attested by the number of people present and the number and variety of questions asked. The brotherhood is again making an out-of-town tour to Caterpillar Tractor and Hiram Walker, both in Peoria, Illinois. The program also includes guest speakers from various walks of the business world. Our professional program is a credit to both Brother Dick Lucas, chairman, and the Fraternity.

In the social realm, our chapter currently holds the Blue Key Award for the Social Organization of the Year. This year, under the chairmanship of Brother Tony Mastro, we are again looking forward to many activities. We have had several parties already, of which the best was the Founders' Day Party. Coming up in the future are a party with the Women's Dorm, a Thanksgiving Party, a Christmas Party, and a New Year's Eve Party.

Plans are being laid for our Second Annual Bal Rose. Brothers Larry Grady and Bill O'Neill, co-chairmen, are working hard to make this dance as great a success as last year. From all advance indications, interest is high and we expect a larger crowd than last year.

Recently, a distinguished guest, Executive Director Jim Thomson, dropped in at a chapter meeting and filled us in on recent Central Office activities.

We are currently holding the Intramural Banner, thanks to the Athletic Chairman, Brother Jim Santo, and the full-hearted support of the entire brotherhood.

Again this year, many of the professional societies here at Loyola are headed by Deltasigs, showing the fraternity's recognition here at school.

With these many and varied activities coming this semester, the brotherhood of Gamma Pi Chapter is looking forward to another full year.—RICK ROBERTS

RIDER

THE BETA XI CHAPTER welcomes back 47 brothers for the current year. Inasmuch as the year has just begun, we have well advanced toward gaining our ultimate 100,000 points. We are fortunate in having Dr. Karl Pearson, head of the Business Administration Department; and Mr. Glenn Leach, coach of the varsity basketball team, as faculty brothers.

We began our successful season with our annual parents' reception which received many compliments. We feel that a closer relationship among the parents brings about a closer fraternity. On October 21, 1960, we participated in the annual Alumni Homecoming Weekend, at which time many of the newly initiated brothers met with our alumni. During the Saturday night festivities, we were the recipients of a trophy given by the alumni to the best decorated house.

As usual, Beta Xi Chapter proved themselves by copping the first, second, and third place in the Cross Country Intramurals.

Our Founders' Day Dance was celebrated at the Pennsbury Inn, November 12, 1960. Again the undergraduate chapter combined its efforts with the alumni and had a successful affair. The highlight of the evening was the crowning of our "Rose of Deltasig" of 1961. Miss Bonnie, "Rose" of 1961, a member of Sigma Iota Chi sorority, was crowned by Miss Lorraine Theoharris, "Rose" of 1960.

Our rushing season began with a party at the house, at which time we entertained over 250 prospective rushees. Another party is scheduled for December 2, 1960.

We were honored to have as our guest, A. Jerome Moore, a recent candidate for Congress. He led the professional program in a question and answer debate on numerous political policies and law as a career.

We are climaxing our first semester with a Children's Christmas Party in co-operation with the sisters of Sigma Iota Chi.—JOSEPH PLETTO

INDIANA STATE

BECAUSE OF PARTICIPATION in freshman orientation Delta Tau Chapter was off to a busy start even before the official school year got underway. The new students were taken on a tour of the Business Department and made to feel at ease for the start of their college careers.

Although the chapter is relatively youthful, it has been taking giant steps in progress. Plans have been made with an emphasis on the theme, "Bigger and Better." Business meetings took precedence in the first few weeks of the fall semester with a visit from Field Secretary Charles L. Farrar and plans for pledging, professional programs, and interesting tours.

In the way of social activities the Delta Tau Chapter is full. A chapter birthday party, celebrated with a fine steak dinner, promoted an atmosphere of friendship and cooperation needed for the busy schedule of activities that lie ahead. The brothers and their dates attended the affair, and much of the success was due to the work and collaboration between Brother Acree and President McHargue. After the party, plans were made concerning the annual "Rose of Deltasig" dance to be held in the first month of the new year. To ice the social cake, the chapter had a colorful hand in the annual home coming parade to display to all that Delta Sigma Pi is the fraternity to watch as it progresses to greater importance on campus.

Mr. John Stelle, president of Artkitechs Ceramics, was the highlight of our first professional meeting for this year. He told a story of success in which his business came from possible failure to the largest single producer of ceramic tile in the world. For contrasting subject matter Mr. Robert Ross enlightened us with a speech that centered around the role of the small businessman in our present society and also the outlook for the future. This meeting was utilized as a rush function and refreshments were served during a social period at the close of the regular meeting.

Delta Tau Chapter looks to the remainder of the year with great expectations as the agenda calls for a tour of the United States Army Finance Center at Fort Benjamin Harrison in Indianapolis, Indiana, and a panel discussion on what a personnel manager expects of an applicant. This discussion is to feature personnel managers from the Ohio Oil Company, Eastern Motor Express, Charles Pfizer Company, and the Visking Corporation. This activity is to be moderated by the chairman of the Business Department, Dr. Paul F. Muse.—WILLIAM E. LUNDWALL

BUSINESS TYCOONS in the Indiana State parade were Robert Mayfield and Wayne McHargue of Delta Tau Chapter.

ALPHA NU CHAPTER at the Denver Alumni Club recently joined at this banquet to celebrate the chapter's 35th birthday.

TULANE

GAMMA MU CHAPTER has once again started off a fine year. Early in October we held our rush party, which was a quite a success, in the fabulous French Quarter, and a week later pledged 20 boys. So far this year we have had a tour through the Federal Reserve Bank in New Orleans and afterwards heard a talk by the Vice President of the Bank on the complete functions of the system and the effects it has on our economy. Also a member of Merrill, Lynch, Pierce, Fenner, and Smith spoke to us on the workings of a brokerage firm and on the stock market.

Socially, Gamma Mu Chapter helped finance the business school annual formal, which turned out to be a big success. The Tulane Chapter has been challenged by the Loyola Chapter to a football game. We accepted and it is to be played before the Christmas Holidays.

We have several professional meetings scheduled to fill out the rest of the semester and of course the highlight of the semester will be initiation which is planned for January 8, 1961 in the Roosevelt Hotel.—NELSON J. BECKER

TEXAS

BETA KAPPA CHAPTER at The University of Texas began its Fall semester with an enthusiastic group of officers headed by President Robert McCurry. They have a deep determination to promote the chapter's activities and to make Delta Sigma Pi and its goals a well-known part of our campus. A new office and meeting room in the plush new $2.5 million dollar Texas Union Building is one of our first accomplishments in a program of constructive growth.

The pledge class of 25 undergraduates and 2 faculty members is proving to be a very dynamic group this semester. They made a spectacular showing at a recent campus pep-rally and have numerous work projects lined up which will not only benefit the community, but will also further the name of our chapter. The neophytes and brothers had an opportunity to become better acquainted at our annual stag party held the second week in November.

Socially the chapter has had quite an active semester. The Oklahoma-Texas football game in Dallas meant an exciting weekend for many of the brothers and their dates. A reserved section at the pre-game dance provided a meeting place for all those attending. Nearly 140 attended our informal dance in October, and the Christmas Ball in December at The Capital City Country Club promises to spectacularly usher in the holiday season.

Intramurals have been an active part of our fall program with good showings in football, bowling, soccer, and several other divisions. We have high hopes of ranking in the top ten of our division by the end of the semester.

Professional activities have included four interesting speakers from local businesses, a local field trip to the Adam's Extract Company, and an out of town trip to The Federal Reserve Bank in Dallas on December 1. The National Food Broker's Association Scholarship was awarded to Brother Doug Williams, and many of our members are staying at the top of their classes scholastically this year.

Several of the brothers are providing leadership as class officers in The College of Business Administration. Senior class officers are Brother Rex Spivey, president; Brother Ken Dodds, vice president; and Brother Morris Massey, secretary. Brother Arthur Schmidt is vice president of the junior class.

Thus the fall semester has been one of activity for our chapter in professional, social, scholastic, and fraternal areas. Credit for a job well-done justly goes to all our members and faculty who have cooperated wholeheartedly in making the Beta Kappa Chapter a dynamic organization.—MORRIS MASSEY

PENN STATE

ALPHA GAMMA CHAPTER will initiate 20 new brothers at a formal initiation ceremony on December 17. These men have been pledging for the past month and are all taking a very active interest in the functions of our chapter. Following the initiation ceremony, a banquet will be held at the Nittany Lion Inn on the Penn State campus. We are very honored to have as our main speaker Mr. George L. Haller, a vice president of the General Electric Corporation and general manager of their Defense Electronics Division. Prior to going with General Electric, Mr. Haller was dean of the College of Chemistry and Physics at the Pennsylvania State University.

Also on December 17, Alpha Gamma Chapter will hold its annual "Rose of Deltasig" Dance. Preparations for this event have been underway for sometime now and we really expect a large turnout among the brotherhood.

We are also proud to announce that our new Chapter Advisor is Professor George G. L. Lucas. Professor Lucas teaches insurance at the College of Business Administration and his taking over as advisor is indeed an asset for our organization.

One of the more interesting meetings we have had this year was a joint meeting with Phi Chi Theta, a women's business sorority. At this meeting, Dr. Laurance Lattman, assistant professor of geomorphology, talked on "The Qualities Needed to Become a Successful Executive, as Recommended by Psychologists." Everyone at this meeting agreed that this was one of the most humorous and informative talks they had ever heard.—GILBERT KAHN, JR.

GEORGIA

PI CHAPTER at the University of Georgia is busy preparing for the "Rose" Dance to be held in November. We are having a steak dinner before the dance. A nine piece band will furnish the music. Right now the brothers are in the process of selecting a "Rose," her court, and a chapter beauty sponsor.

We started the year by having Mayor Ralph Snow of Athens, speak to prospective members at a "smoker" held at the house. We pledged 14 men who have taken a great interest in the fraternity. Their pledge project is making a party room out of the attic in the chapter house. The room as planned, will include seats built into the walls, and an orchestra pit. The room is being decorated in a south-sea island motif. When finished, the old attic will be a wonderful place for parties or just television viewing.

Our chapter has two tours planned for this quarter. We will visit the General Electric Plant in Athens, and the Carling's Brewery in Atlanta.

Pi Chapter football team seems to be shortening the yardage towards the division trophy for they are tied for second place with three more games to go. We are all keeping our fingers crossed.

We at Pi Chapter are looking forward to a Fall quarter packed with fraternal activities.—JAY MICHAEL BECKER

WISCONSIN

PSI CHAPTER was pleasantly surprised this fall on returning to our "hallowed halls." The house was under an extensive remodeling program which has undoubtedly given us the finest, most stylistic fraternity on campus. Thank you Housing Corporation. Further modernization of our bathrooms and kitchen is planned for the Christmas vacation.

Our professional program under the capable leadership of Patrick Juneau has been extremely successful. It has had speakers such as the President of Anchor Savings and Loan, a representative of R. W. Baird (stockbroker), a salesman for IBM, an assistant dean of men and a representative of the Intervarsity Christian Association. Tomorrow, November 10, Psi Chapter's first professional tour will be comprised of a visit to A. O. Smith in the morning and the Pabst brewery in the afternoon.

On the lighter side, our social program, we have had two open houses for our parents and for our neighbors. We have also had several weekend parties, one of which was the pledge party. The title of it was "El Revolucion" and it followed a Castro-type theme. It was wonderfully presented and one of the best parties of the year. Psi Chapter proudly took third place on our homecoming display in competition with 34 other fraternities. The leaders and designers were Roy Swisher and Robert Guetschow.

This year we have 13 contestants in our first "Rose" Formal. From now on this will be an annual event so it will take a lot of diligent preparation. Another great event for Psi Chapter has been our recovery of the "Delta-Chug-A-Lug-Psi" cup from Delta Chapter after the Marquette football game.

The pledge scholarship award was presented to treasurer Robert A. Felde by Doctor Center, our Chapter Advisor. This award is presented to the pledge with the highest average over a three point.—THOMAS R. DORRINGTON

JOHNS HOPKINS

THE NEW SHERATON BALTIMORE INN was the scene of the annual Founders' Day Banquet celebrated by the Baltimore Alumni Club and the Chi Chapter. Over 46 brothers attended, among them were three charter members, J. Harry Garmer, Neil A. Lappe, and Eugene Bolsteer. We were especially pleased to welcome the Past Grand President, J. Harry Feltham and two out of town guests, Bill Klienfelder from Philadelphia and Sig Rebane, Gamma Sigma—University of Maryland.

One of the highlights of the evening came when J. Harry Feltham announced the return of the long lost Chapter Charter missing since 1943.

Our Master of Ceremonies, Mel Brown, provided an excellent program and guest speaker Hugh Monaghan, past president of the Baltimore Alumni Club kept the pace with a stimulating talk on setting goals and achieving them.

We are sad to announce the passing of our first Chapter Advisor Brother Leslie Baker.

PSI CHAPTER at the University of Wisconsin worked many hours on this homecoming display in front of their chapter house this year.

The Chi Chapter is presently training ten pledges for December initiation. We are confident they will strengthen our chapter and enable us to meet our goal in the Chapter Efficiency Contest.—C. FRANCIS FURST

MARYLAND

GAMMA SIGMA CHAPTER at the University of Maryland celebrated Founders' Day in joint activities with Mu Chapter of Georgetown University, and the Washington Alumni Club. Among the activities were a dinner, dance, and an alumni reception. Over 50 brothers were in attendance at these affairs, and much of the success was due to the social chairman of the various chapters.

Our first professional dinner for this year featured a very fine talk on the transportation problems in the railroad field. Giving the speech was Mr. James Sites, Director of Radio and Television for the Association of American Railroads. Almost the entire active chapter was in attendance plus 25 prospective pledges. A very interesting question and answer period followed the formal talk, and in all, the affair lasted over two hours. The chapter has a full and varied program of professional meetings and social activities scheduled for the balance of this college year.

Gamma Sigma Chapter celebrated Homecoming in fine style. The brothers and their dates attended the game, and sitting together, cheered the team on to victory. Later that evening the brothers met for dinner, and topped the day off with attendance at the Homecoming Dance where music was provided by Ray Charles.

As a result of our rush program, we have already pledged ten men, everyone of whom is a potential asset to Delta Sigma Pi. Our rush program included a coffee hour and a rush dinner. The chapter is anticipating a fine year and should have no trouble meeting our quota of 100,000 points in the Chapter Efficiency Contest.—THOMAS A. BARTOLEC

AUBURN

BETA LAMBDA CHAPTER at Auburn University held its first business meeting on October 4, with James Quick our president presiding. In this meeting we discussed our fall activities and appointed various members to perform jobs relating to our pledge program. We also voted on the two new amendments to our Constitution recommended by The Central Office.

On October 18, our chapter held a smoker for the prospective pledges. Our guest speaker was Vince Dooley from the Auburn Athletic Department who spoke on our school's football team. Films of past Auburn football games were shown.

At our formal pledge meeting seven pledges announced their intentions of becoming members of our chapter. Their names are Joel K. Swint, John H. Dickas, Robert Cotton, Jim Whatley, Barnwell R. Calhoun, Larry Foreman, and Jim Laney. The pledge project is construction of a sign for the purpose of announcing future meetings and other events of our chapter. The initiation and banquet will be held on the first Sunday in December.

Our first professional meeting consisted of an informative speech by one of the representatives of IBM Company. He spoke to us on the operation and uses of the IBM 650 Computer. A demonstration in Auburn's Computer Laboratory was presented at the end of the meeting.

Our chapter is sorry to hear of the resignation of our Faculty Advisor, Dr. Ellsworth Steele of the Department of Economics and Business Administration. His assistance and support of our fraternity will be missed very much. We have not decided on who the new advisor will be.—TERRY L. WASHINGTON

EAST TENNESSEE

DELTA XI CHAPTER members returned to the campus this Fall with three main objectives: to install a more effective rushing program; to increase Delta Sigma Pi's influence and prestige on the campus; and to obtain a goal of 100,000 points in the Chapter Efficiency Contest.

The first rush party of the Fall quarter was held at Meade Cabin, which is located on the shores of beautiful Boone Lake. Thirty-two active members were present to welcome a large group of new rushees. After refreshments were served, the prospective pledges were shown the "Slide Story of Delta Sigma Pi" and were given the booklets, "Interesting Facts about Delta Sigma Pi" and "Future Business Executives." Ten men were pledged the following week. Our new neophytes have excellent grade point averages and should prove a real asset to our chapter.

Our chapter started its program of business tours with a visit to Monroe Calculating Company at Bristol, Virginia. We were shown how raw materials were placed into production, parts manufactured and assembled, and how the completed machines were tested.—JAMES D. CHANDLER

MIDWESTERN

EPSILON ZETA CHAPTER at Midwestern University, Wichita Falls, Texas is beginning its first semester of fraternal activities. We were installed as a chapter on October 15, with 25 being initiated. Although we are but an infant in the family of Delta Sigma Pi, we are flexing our young muscles and are emerging into a field of competition and progress.

Our thanks go out to Homer T. Brewer, Grand President; Kenneth B. White, Past Grand President; Joe M. Hefner, Regional Director; Ronnie G. Smith, District Director; and B. C. Butler, Past Regional Director; all of whom directed the ritual team which was comprised of Delta Phi, Delta Epsilon, Delta Theta, Beta Phi, and Beta Upsilon chapters. Other guests to be thanked are Dan Wigley and Claude Whitley, alumni of Beta Psi and Delta Epsilon chapters respectively. The effort on behalf of these brothers made our installation a most happy occasion.

In addition we wish to thank Brothers J. D. Thomson, Joe M. Hefner, B. C. Butler, and Claude Whitley for their valuable time and interest in helping us to organize our chapter.

Epsilon Zeta chapter, despite its late start, expects to reach the 100,000 point mark in the Chapter Efficiency Contests as plans have been formulated to reach this goal. A full professional program, under the chairmanship of Brother Harry D. Thornton, has been scheduled for the year. Included in the program are plans for several industrial tours and professional speakers. The first scheduled speaker will be Russell Carr, manager of Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner, and Smith, Inc. He spoke to us on December 5, in place of our regular meeting.

A well-rounded social program is also planned for the year. Brother Ray Taylor is chairman of this program. The first social event honored Founders' Day by having an informal banquet and dance. Guest speaker was Brother B. C. Butler who gave an inspiring talk on the founding and history of Delta Sigma Pi.

Our plans for rushing look promising and we anticipate initiating a large number of pledges early in the spring term. Numerous male students in the School of Business have expressed their desire to pledge Delta Sigma Pi. Brother Milton Coker, in charge of pledging, has already begun examining the records of the male students enrolled in the School of Business to select the most desirable pledges.

During Midwestern's Homecoming, Epsilon Zeta Chapter assisted in the building of the bonfire. We also entered a decorated car in the parade which took place in downtown Wichita Falls.—HAROLD J. SNOW

WESTERN RESERVE

THE BROTHERS of Beta Tau Chapter at Western Reserve University have established an award to be given to the graduate with the highest scholarship in banking and finance subjects. This award is in memory of Dr. Albert James, former dean of the Western Reserve School of Business and a member of Beta Tau Chapter who died recently. Dr. James was initiated into Beta Tau Chapter at the age of 65 and this was his sole fraternal affiliation.

The chapter has held two social functions so far this year. One was a stag party which was attended by over 20 and the second was a date affair in honor of our Founders.

Also among our activities were two surveys for the School of Business. The first having to do with a list of all members of the School of Business and this was the only such list ever made. The second was a graduate survey at Western Reserve University.

We were also recently honored by a visit from Field Secretary Charles Farrar of The Central Office. Of particular interest was the remarks he made about the 23rd Grand Chapter Congress and his Yellow Dog Card.

Among the personals are the engagement of Norm Segel, the marriages of Joe Davidson and Clive Romig, and the pinning of Randy Eliassen.—J. NORMAN SEGEL

ST. LOUIS

BETA SIGMA CHAPTER here at Saint Louis University started the year in the traditional Deltasig spirit. We began the year by meeting the out of town freshmen at the airport and train station and acquainting them with the University and with Deltasig. We have received many compliments both from the administration and from the students on our service, and we plan to continue it next year. Brother Marion "Krako" Krakoweicki was our candidate for "Kampus King" at the Sadie Hawkins Dance. Although we didn't win we made a very good showing and everyone on campus knew the Deltasigs were in there pitching. Our intramural football team shows promise of taking the championship again this year. We have only been defeated once, and that was by one point in the last play of the game. Our pledges seem to be shaping up into future brothers under the new pledge program of Brother Al Klein.

The Chariton Restaurant was the scene of our Founders' Day Banquet. This was highlighted by a discussion of "The Function of Fraternities on the Saint Louis University Campus," by Father W. J. Federer, Saint Louis University Dean of Men; Dr. Arthur Meyers, Moderator of Deltasig; Edwin H. Styffe, Jr., former president of the Beta Sigma Chapter; and several of our active brothers. The "Rose" Queen of The Beta Sigma Chapter will be crowned at our "Rose" Formal on December 21, at The Chase Hotel. The wheels are in motion for a really spectacular rushing program for the second semester. Brother Ken Meyer and his committee are doing such a wonderful job that we expect to turn in the largest rushee list of any fraternity on campus. Well, that about all from the Beta Sigma Chapter; we'll have more news in March.—REED S. MILLER

FLORIDA SOUTHERN

THE DELTASIGS of Delta Iota Chapter recently have obtained a new chapter room in the Business Administration building of Florida Southern College.

We had a very successful "Rush" season, which we closed with a beach party. The following week we installed pledges to start our first semester activities.

In conjunction with the national birthday of Delta Sigma Pi, the brothers all enjoyed a steak dinner, which was followed by a talk on investments by our guest speaker.

Brothers Donovan, Perks, and Bryant attended the Southeastern Regional Meeting held at Columbia, South Carolina, on November 5-6.—RICHARD F. SIMMEL

WEST LIBERTY

DELTA OMEGA CHAPTER at West Liberty State College opened its first year with a rush party for prospective pledges. Of those attending nine were chosen and were formally initiated on November 19. Following the initiation was a banquet which was enjoyed by members and alumni alike.

Delta Omega Chapters' professional program began on October 10, when all brothers toured the Yorkville Works of Wheeling Steel and observed the production of Ductillite tin plate. On November 10 the chapter made a tour of the Steubenville Works of Wheeling Steel. Founders' Day was celebrated with an informal gathering following a chapter meeting. Other tours and various speakers have been scheduled so that Delta Omega Chapter has a full and interesting program of professional activities.

Social activities for the Fall semester included a float in the Homecoming Parade, a chapter dance held in December, and a fine banquet sponsored by the Lambda Chapter at the University of Pittsburgh.

In order to build up our treasury Delta Omega Chapter has carried on numerous fund raising activities. Some of these included the sale of school sweat shirts to the student body, the raffle or a hi-fi phonograph, and the sale of refreshments at all home football games. Other such activities are being planned for future months so that financial problems will be reduced.

The brothers of Delta Omega Chapter are looking forward to a successful year.—WILLIAM HILL

OMAHA

GAMMA ETA CHAPTER at the University of Omaha opened this fall with many new members, initiated last year, participating in the fraternity's activities. Many of the new initiates have been assigned to special committees, which will help prepare them for higher offices.

Our first professional meeting featured an outstanding talk on the functions of the Omaha Stockyards. Mr. Lester Olson, public relations director and purchasing agent for the Union Stockyards Company presented the talk. The entire chapter was present to hear the talk; also several prospective pledges attended. Our next professional meeting will feature a talk by one of Omaha's prominent bankers.

At our rush party last fall we talked with several potential pledges for our fraternity. From this group we pledged nine men. Several of the other interested members preferred to wait until next semester. We held our initiation on November 20, 1960.

So far, our organized bowling team has been participating in the toughest competition it has seen in some time. We have also organized a basketball team to participate in the Inter-Fraternity Conference.—ROBERT P. PETTEGREW

NEW MEXICO

GAMMA IOTA CHAPTER at the University of New Mexico was well prepared at the beginning of the fall semester to initiate an interesting and spirited program of activities. Two meetings of the executive committee, called by President Wheeler, during the summer recess accomplished much of the preliminary work such as compiling a schedule of activities and ordering the regalia trunk.

The first order of business of the semester was to offer our assistance to the College of Business Administration for registration. The offer was gratefully accepted. Upon completion of registration a personal letter of gratitude was received by each brother from Dr. Parish, Dean of the College of Business Administration.

Several weeks later the fraternity again assisted the college. The actives and pledges worked with the office staff in preparing invitations to alumni of the college for Homecoming. This was done at the request of Dean Parish. We were happy to assist the Dean in this, his pet project.

Gamma Iota Chapter was highly honored to partake in the Inter-Mountain Regional Meeting of Delta Sigma Pi held here in Albuquerque. Registration of the delegates was a responsibility this chapter gladly accepted.

"Buzz" Sutton, our Regional Director, along with a very able assist from Joe Hefner, Southwestern Regional Director and a member of The Grand Council, conducted an inspiring program which reflected the high ideals and aims of Delta Sigma Pi.

Our rush program resulted in the acquisition of 14 pledges. All of which we, the actives, believe will result in the continuation of the high standards for which Delta Sigma Pi is known. Included among our rushees were students from the College of Economics. The College of Economics is separate from that of the College of Business Administration for that reason there had been some indifference in approaching economic students. But this situation has now been rectified.

Gamma Iota Chapter has entered a team in the intramural basketball competition here at the University of New Mexico. This is the first such participation by our chapter. We are proud of those taking part and backing them up at every game.

The leadership and inspiration of our President, John Wheeler, has led to a productive and rewarding semester. He has injected in all of us the feeling of pride and loyalty that is Delta Sigma Pi—EMERY POSTENRIEDER

U of SAN FRANCISCO

GAMMA OMICRON CHAPTER at the University of San Francisco has begun what promises to be an active and successful year. On the 24th of September we held a date party to celebrate our tenth birthday. The large turnout that was present was duplicated at the rush functions that followed closely. Senior Vice President Riboni presented many good rushees, and out of this group the brothers have chosen five as pledges. Jr. Warden Nelson is now leading these men thru the rigors of Pledging, but by the time that this DELTASIG appears they will be brothers.

On the evening of October 22, the tenth Annual "Rose of Deltasig" Dance was held. To say that it was a success is to understate as over 350 couples watched President Momsen crown Miss Vickie McKosker "Rose of Deltasig of 1960." It is agreed that the "Rose" Dance was and will be one of the best at the University of San Francisco.

As a service to the entire student body, the brothers published and distributed free of charge a desk blotter showing the various schedules pertaining to the students. The success has encouraged us to plan to do this again next year. Also as a service to the students and as a memorial to the deceased brothers of Gamma Omicron Chapter, we have set up the Charles Manca plaque which shall have the names of the deceased brothers inscribed on it. Brother Manca passed away last year.

As of now we have had but one professional dinner meeting where we were given a talk on the art of salesmanship. Almost 100% of the brothers attended. Also on this evening Brother Charles Farrar, the Field Secretary, visited us and informed us that a chapter would be installed at Chico State College soon. To this chapter, the brothers of Gamma Omicron Chapter say, "welcome."—JEROME BRAUN

A MEMORIAL PLAQUE at the University of San Francisco honors the deceased members of Gamma Omicron Chapter, and is named after Charles A. Manca its first member to pass away.

OKLAHOMA CITY

WITH THE LARGEST PORTION of our Fraternity graduating in June of 1960, we, the remaining members of Delta Theta Chapter were faced with the problem of maintaining its membership. To meet this problem we undertook the idea of summer pledging and put it into effect. We found this very effective, and of the small number enrolled at school during the summer we pledged ten new members. These members were initiated on October 7 with a banquet being held that evening at the Oklahoma City Golf and Country Club.

With the added enthusiasm of the new summer pledge class, and the remaining members from last year, we commenced our fall rushing on October 10 and formal pledging being held October 22, 1960.

November 4 was also another day to be remembered by the members, pledges, and alumni of Delta Theta Chapter. This marked the largest group of Deltasigs ever assembled by our chapter or possibly the largest in the state of Oklahoma. Nearly 70 members, pledges, and alumni of Delta Theta Chapter were gathered, including members and alumni of other chapters, bringing the total number to nearly 100. Alumni from other chapters included Northwestern, Oklahoma University and North Texas State.

This semester at OCU has been quite busy with our regular meetings and two initiations. In addition to this, the chapter has held three tours. The first tour being conducted on November 4 at the General Motors Training Center at Oklahoma City. The second being held at the Wilson & Co. plant on November 10, and the third being held at the Federal Reserve Bank of Oklahoma City on November 17.

Congratulations are in order for two Brothers of Delta Theta Chapter. Brother Roy E. Cornelius is the proud father of a daughter born on November 27, Margaret Dinese. Brother Royce H. Trammel is the proud father of a son born November 20, Richard Lee.

WAKE FOREST

THE MAIN OBJECTIVE of Gamma Nu Chapter at Wake Forest College for this year is fixing up our chapter room by buying new furniture, of which we have bought a complete new living room outfit.

Our social side of life consists of parties after football games. One was held at Brother Pruden's house. Also, we had a party celebrating homecoming. Approximately 40 members and their dates attended. We were honored at this party with alumni, Brother Lawson and Brother Paschal.

Our first professional meeting this year featured a movie on the complete process of Hanes Knitting Company. We plan to have a speaker concerning management the fourth week of November. The most helpful thing we have done is starting a course for brothers on personal finance with experts speaking on different aspects of personal finance. Also beneficial to our brothers is our working closely with the placement office to aid our senior members obtain interviews with representatives from various companies.

We had a very successful smoker, having 21 pledges. Our guest speaker was Dr. L. J. Thomas of School of Business Administration. Also attending was Brother Dave Monk, past president, who spoke on the significance and effect of Delta Sigma Pi upon him. Our brothers decided to have a banquet for our new members.—RONALD G. SHIELDS

ALPHA OMICRON CHAPTER

ALPHA OMICRON CHAPTER of Delta Sigma Pi started the 1960-61 school year by sponsoring a place in the registration line to familiarize students of commerce with Delta Sigma Pi.

Dr. Paul L. Noble, Dean of the College of Commerce, spoke at the rush party on the "Value of a Professional Fraternity." As a result of a successful rush, Alpha Omicron Chapter pledged 20 prospective members.

Chapter projects this year include the maintenance of professional displays in the commerce building coordinated with films and speakers from related industries.

Professional activities for this semester have included: a field trip to Armco Steel, Middletown, Ohio; a marketing methods seminar, with a speaker from the Wms. S. Merrell Co.; and an interview clinic with a speaker from Firestone Tire and Rubber discussing the interview process.

Two men are helping promote better student-faculty relationship by assisting in the law department.

Alpha Omicron Chapter observed Founders' Day with appropriate ceremonies and a talk by our Faculty Advisor Lowell B. Howard.—JAMES LEWIS

DETROIT—Gamma Rho

GAMMA RHO CHAPTER ushered in this our tenth year with the "Rush" Party which was held at the Detroit Veterans' Memorial Building. The fine attendance of actives, alumni and potential members made this one of our most successful "Rush" Parties. To open our professional program our Professional Chairman Jerry Blaskowski provided an excellent film by U.S. Steel on the building of the Mackinac Bridge. At our second Professional Meeting Dr. John L. Perentesis gave a timely and interesting talk on "The Election and You."

On November 5, the Founders' Day Party was held at the Lee-Plaza Hotel. The 37 brothers and their dates who attended will all attest to the fact that "a fine time was had by all." At the present time we are all looking forward to the "Rose" Dinner Dance. This year's affair will be something a little different in that plans are in the making to have a dance jointly sponsored by the six Michigan chapters of Delta Sigma Pi.

Quite certainly this will prove to be the climax to the year's social events.

Our President Daniel Root and Senior Vice President Gerard McMaster were both able to attend the Central Regional Meeting in Chicago. The enthusiasm expressed by these brothers show quite clearly that the meeting was a success.

The brothers of Gamma Rho Chapter cordially extend their sincerest Holiday Greetings to all.—ALLAN H. MATHERS

THE FOUNDERS' DAY celebration of Delta Theta Chapter at Oklahoma City University featured a cake that was frosted on the spot by Dean Willis Wheat.

GAMMA PHI CHAPTER'S attractive float carried a business theme in the Texas Western homecoming parade.

SAN FRANCISCO STATE

DELTA OMICRON CHAPTER at San Francisco State College has had a productive first semester this year. Through the diligent efforts of every chapter member a fine pledge class was developed, and the majority of these pledges have now become brothers in Delta Sigma Pi.

The brothers of Delta Omicron Chapter celebrated Founders' Day this year by sponsoring a dance that included a group of lively musical entertainers. A good time was had by all, and it was indeed a night to remember.

Delta Omicron Chapter's professional program has been quite interesting and well diversified for the Fall semester. Our first professional meeting featured a panel discussion by alumni of Delta Omicron Chapter on the subject of preparation for job interviews, and job placement problems. As can be imagined, many questions were asked by the undergraduate brothers and pledges in attendance.

Our next professional meeting was highlighted by an interesting talk by Mr. A. Glick, cost coordinator for Ampex Corporation, who spoke on "What A Growing Company Seeks In College Graduates." Everyone thoroughly enjoyed Mr. Glick's talk, in which he expressed many thought provoking ideas.

Plans for future professional meetings include informative industrial films, as well as tours of local industries.—ROBERT B. JOHNSON

ITHACA

DELTA LAMBDA CHAPTER was one of the chapters present at the East Central Regional meetings held in Dayton late in October. President Henry Hulbert, Vice-President John Tucker, and Secretary Bob Moore represented Delta Lambda Chapter at the meeting. They reported that the schedule of events was well set and run by Regional Director Tober and Field Secretary Charles Farrar. The series of meetings and forums shed a great deal of light on some of the current problems of our chapter and helped us to solve them more readily. We feel that these regional conventions will serve a many-fold purpose, in that they will extend the feeling of brotherhood among the chapters, create solutions for any of the questions of any respective chapters, and further the standards of the fraternity. The brothers of Delta Lambda Chapter wish to extend thanks and congratulations to those who made these things possible.

One of the activities of the Fall semester was the annual I. C. United Fund sponsored by Delta Sigma Pi. Led by brothers Hull, Moore and Petras, the college again went over its quota.

The full professional and social calendar will provide the brothers, alumni, and pledges with an ample outlet for any excess energy.—RALPH P. WILLSEY, JR.

MICHIGAN

XI CHAPTER at The University of Michigan began its social calendar for the Fall semester with a successful dance for all students of the School of Business Administration on the front steps of the School during the registration period. Our third annual Alumni Homecoming Dinner was held at the American Legion Memorial Home after the Minnesota football game and brought together many of our alumni. A professional floor show topped off an evening of dancing and reminiscing. Just before Christmas vacation the chapter got together for a WHTOATY Party (abbreviation for We Haven't Thought Of A Theme Yet).

The high point of the Fall professional program was a visit to the United Auto Workers Union Solidarity House in Detroit. Mr. Leonard Woodcock, a vice president of the union and a regent of Wayne State University, spoke to the brothers on the role of unions in politics. The program was so interesting that we are now planning on having the UAW's president, Walter Reuther, speak to the chapter sometime during the Spring semester. The Fall program also featured a talk on computers by a representative of Remington Rand and a panel of finance experts from the Detroit area, who answered questions in an all-school open forum.

In November, Xi Chapter initiated six new members into Delta Sigma Pi. The Rushing Committee is hard at work to make sure we increase that number in the Spring. All the officers and committee chairmen are out to try to improve last year's standing in the Chapter Efficiency Contest.—RICHARD GRIEBEL

NORTH TEXAS

DELTA EPSILON CHAPTER at North Texas State has jumped off to a great start. After a very successful rush, we installed 17 new pledges. They are: Gene Parker, David Davidson, Johnny Graves, James Gray, Robert Wooton, Fred Barbary, Ronald Brown, Hank Hermann, Paul Wyche, Joe Belton, Stan Winke, Herman Williamson, Guy Hubbard, John R. Taylor, Charles Weber, Joe Conyers, and Paul Glenn.

The next big thing after pledge installation was our annual Founders' Day Celebration. This year it was held at the Holiday Inn Motel in Dallas, Texas. Over 50 couples enjoyed an evening of entertainment by Miss Kate Estes and her band. Although we were all sleepy and tired from 3 days work on our homecoming house decoration we managed to celebrate the birthday of Delta Sigma Pi in true Deltasig fashion.

But all has not been fun and play here at Delta Epsilon Chapter. After reaching the 100,000 mark in last year's Chapter Efficiency Contest, we are busy accumulating points for this year. We have had several professional films and have two tours planned that will be enjoyable and beneficial to our members and pledges. Also several of our brothers helped install the new chapter at Midwestern University.

Next on our agenda is our annual Beer Keg Bowl game which is played each year with Delta Upsilon Chapter at T.C.U. This year we are anticipating the return of the Beer Keg Bowl Plaque to the Delta Epsilon Chapter room wall.—DAVID WILSON

TEXAS WESTERN

THE FORMAL INITIATION of Gamma Phi Chapter of Delta Sigma Pi was held in the Student Union Building on the campus of Texas Western College and the following were initiated: Frederick W. Adams, Tim Dwyer, Tony Quinones, Ralph F. Navar, J. Adalberto Navar, and Fred Murphy. The initiation was held on Sunday, October 9, following the informal rush party at the Desert Hills Motel and the Fall Banquet at the Student Union Building.

The pledges hold weekly meetings every Tuesday night at 6 P.M. in Burgess Hall.

Jim Kaster, president of the Ex-students Association at TWC was the guest speaker at the Fall Banquet. The Banquet was considered quite a success as all of the faculty of the business department and members of the alumni were present along with the rushees.

During the informal rush, Frank Hyer, president of Gamma Phi Chapter, talked on the history of Delta Sigma Pi and its activities at the school. Slides were shown at the party depicting programs held by Delta Sigma Pi throughout the year.

Jim Thomson, Executive Director of Delta Sigma Pi, visited Gamma Phi Chapter recently. Mr. Thomson had lunch with the officers of the chapter and talked over some of their troubles with them. A barbecue was held at Mr. Donald K. Freeland's home in honor of Brother Thomson's visit.—CHARLES G. HORSLEEY

COLORADO

ALPHA RHO CHAPTER at the University of Colorado hailed the beginning of the Fall semester at a professional meeting with prospective pledges. Mr. Jack Watson, director of economic controls for United Airlines, spoke to the combined group about administrative problems in the transition from prop aircraft to the new jets, and their present plans for future transition from the jet age to the supersonic age in aircraft travel.

The initial meeting and subsequent meetings and get-togethers with qualified prospective pledges culminated with 12 students pledging at ceremonies held on October 26th. We are both proud and fortunate in having such a fine group of pledges in our fold.

Alpha Rho Chapter is planning to go on an industrial tour at Colorado Fuel and Iron in Pueblo, Colorado. The group will leave Boulder Saturday, December 3rd, by bus for an extensive tour of the steel mill and fabricating plants of CF & I, and will return to Boulder on the same day.

We hope to have Mr. Harry Steffen, of the Boulder Commonwealth Industrial Bank, speak at a future meeting on the problems involved in making a transition from industrial banking facilities to commercial banking.

Alpha Rho Chapter is looking forward to a progressive and educational year with its many plans and activities for the coming year.—ROGER A. BIGLER

TENNESSEE

ALPHA ZETA CHAPTER began its fall activities with a business meeting and banquet at one of Knoxville's fine restaurants. President Bob Roark reported that the chapter received 92,000 points in last year's Chapter Efficiency Contest—a new record for Alpha Zeta Chapter. Other proceedings included the establishment of several committees and revisions of the chapter by-laws.

Outstanding was a talk on "The Work of a Portfolio Analyst on Wall Street." The speaker was Dr. Bishop of U-T's finance department. A question and answer session followed.

An optimistic outlook for the future of Alpha Zeta Chapter was evidenced by the good turnout for the Fall rush party. The affair was in the form of an informal coffee hour, and it was enjoyed by the prospective pledges as well as by the active members. Dean Upshaw of the College of Business Administration was the guest speaker.

Alpha Zeta's Founders' Day was celebrated on November 8. The chapter was founded on that date in 1924, and one of the first members of the chapter spoke at the recent observance. He is Harvey Meyer, also former head of UT's accounting department.

Most recently, pledging ceremonies were held at which 13 new pledges were elected. In keeping with the basic aims of Delta Sigma Pi, Alpha Zeta Chapter planned an industrial tour of Chattanooga, Tennessee, one of the South's most thriving industrial centers. The proposed tour was received enthusiastically by all.—JAMES A. SPARKS

TEXAS CHRISTIAN

THE DELTA UPSILON CHAPTER at Texas Christian University were guests of the Kemble Grocery Company at their warehouse on October 20 for a professional tour. This was the first chance many had of observing a warehousing operation and we feel that everyone gained some benefit from the tour.

We are pleased to have 16 pledges this fall. We know that they are capable, and believe they will strengthen our fraternity after their initiation on January 8.

Mr. Schultz of Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated, Investments, spoke on October 25, to our chapter after a regular meeting. His topic was investment opportunities, their advantages and disadvantages.

Founders' Day was celebrated with a banquet and a dance held at one of the local hotels. The Deltasigs and pledges created all the decorations that were used. The evening was made more exciting by the presentation of our "Rose" nominees and the crowning of "Rose" Miss Linda Wilkinson representing Delta Upsilon Chapter for the next year. Two brothers also had their formal pinning ceremony. Brother Dexter Thomas pinned Miss Barbara Dodgen and Brother Larry Kent pinned Miss Julie Livesay. Congratulations to all of you.

The Delta Upsilon Chapter is extremely proud of our achievement of 100,000 points in the Chapter Efficiency Contest. This was our first year as Deltasigs and we hope that this record will be an incentive for all new chapters.—BOB MCCOY

BUFFALO

ALPHA KAPPA CHAPTER of the University of Buffalo kicked off its Fall semester with a combined pre-school party and professional meeting on September 9. Our speaker at this affair was the Assistant Dean of the School, Brother George Thompson. Brother Thompson described some of the most frequent problems which face the new freshmen as they register for the first time. The brothers of Alpha Kappa Chapter volunteered to initiate a new program at the University of Buffalo where they would help out these new students on the days that they registered.

On September 22, Alpha Kappa Chapter held a meeting and decided on those that would be invited to the rushing party. Following the meeting, Brother Willfred B. Race, past president of Alpha Kappa Chapter, presented slides from his trip to Japan and displayed many of the articles he brought back with him.

Our Fall rushing party was held at the Buffalo Trap and Field Club on October 2. A large turnout was present of both active and alumni Deltasigs. Twenty prospective brothers including two faculty members were accepted and became neophytes at a formal pledging ceremony on October 9.

On October 18, the brothers of Alpha Kappa Chapter and the new pledges had the privilege of having a tour of the Buffalo Courier Express. This field trip provided all members and pledges present with an interesting insight in the printing of newspapers. Our thanks go to Brother Ed Zobrest for making the arrangements for the tour.

Our semester bowling party was held on November 6. All members, pledges, and their wives or dates had a successful evening.

Alpha Kappa Chapter was well represented at the East Central Regional Meeting at Dayton, Ohio by Brothers Anthony French, Don Miller, and Frank Tober. Brother Tober is the Regional Director.

On November 17, Brother Charles Farrar attended one of our meetings. An award was presented to Alpha Kappa Chapter for attaining 100,000 points in the Chapter Efficiency Contest.

On December 3, Alpha Kappa Chapter will hold its initiation dinner and dance at the Elks Club in Lancaster, New York.—DONALD P. MILLER

A RECENT FIELD TRIP took this group from Gamma Lambda Chapter at Florida State University to the Buckeye Cellulose Corporation in Foley, Florida.

New Building

For Texas Tech

In 1947, a group of earnest young men formed a club, The Cornucopia Society, with much the same objectives and officers as are found in Delta Sigma Pi. On October 25, 1947 the Beta Upsilon Chapter of Delta Sigma Pi was installed on the campus of Texas Technological College.

Since its founding, Beta Upsilon Chapter has initiated nearly 500 pledges into the fraternity. The chapter now has its own lodge, residence houses being prohibited, where all chapter functions are conducted. The chapter has had a remarkable record scoring 100,000 points in the Chapter Efficiency Contest in nine of its thirteen years of operation. Currently the chapter has forty-four undergraduate members, thirteen faculty members and seventeen pledges which is ample proof that Delta Sigma Pi will continue to excel in the School of Business Administration at Texas Tech.
