In their final appearance at the Congress banquet, then Grand President Kathy Jahnke and "The Bus Boys" kick off Saturday night's festivities with their rendition of the Chicago classic "My Kind of Town"—a tribute to Brother Jahnke's hometown.

Nearly 1,000 Deltasigs from across the country helped make Orlando the place to be this past August. At the Renaissance Orlando Resort at SeaWorld, the business of sessions, roundtables and the election of a new leadership team was mixed with the pleasures of a private Shamu show and glamorous banquet.

Wednesday opened up with an engaging keynote speaker Chuck Tompkins of The Ken Blanchard Companies. His "Whale Done!" seminar explained how the world of training killer whales has much more to do with motivating and managing people than you'd think. This was followed by informative sessions, the always popular "How Hard Are You Knocking?" presentation led by Brother Tim Augustine, 2004 Collegian of the Year Stephanie Menio's address and the always enjoyable Grand President's Dance and Golden Knights Ceremony—led for the last time by Past Grand President Norm Kromberg.

Thursday started with the honorary initiation of Roger Tienken, grandson of Founder Henry Albert Tienken. In a Congress very much focused on history and Centennial celebration, this was a truly historic and memorable initiation. The rest of the afternoon focused on business and recognition with the opening business session, Alumni Recognition lunch program and provincial and regional awards presentations taking place.

Friday brought the continuation of the business sessions, the National Awards lunch and program, the 2005 Collegian of the Year address by Dave Glanzrock and the historic Centennial Series led again by Past Grand President Mike Mallonee and featuring a panel of Deltasig legends. The evening ended with a spectacular private killer whale show at SeaWorld featuring Shamu and friends.

Saturday brought an exciting end to another successful Congress. A new Board of Directors and leadership team were elected and the 33rd Grand President, Mitch Simmons, was chosen to lead Delta Sigma Pi into the next biennium. Testimonials, always one of the highlights of Congress, were also shared. See page 6 to meet your new team of leaders! The night ended with a banquet and dance where old friends and new acquaintances celebrated the accomplishments of the week and the upcoming Centennial celebration. ▲

Enthusiasm... Energy... Empowerment... Elevation

At the 45th Grand Chapter Congress in Orlando, I promised when I was elected Grand President, I would promote four elements during the biennium: enthusiasm, energy, empowerment and elevation.

With the excitement of the election of a new national leadership team, we all inevitably were thinking about the direction of the Fraternity for the next biennium. We had the added excitement of the upcoming Delta Sigma Pi Centennial Celebration.

Needless to say, we were all stunned by the surreal scenes of the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina, which struck the Gulf Coast of Louisiana, Mississippi and Alabama, and the impact it had on New Orleans—one of the architectural and historical gems of America. That terrible storm was followed very shortly by an equally devastating Hurricane Rita, which struck southwestern Louisiana and eastern Texas.

Hurricane Katrina struck especially close to home for me, as I grew up about seventy-five miles north of New Orleans, and most of my family still lives there. Fortunately for my family, the storm veered slightly to the east. While they experienced strong hurricane force winds and copious amounts of rain, and the requisite loss of power and water for two weeks, they were the lucky ones.

Thousands of people on the Gulf Coast are still suffering and need help. Deltasigs were displaced, and (as I write this) two of our chapters, Delta Nu at Loyola-New Orleans, and Nu Omicron at Our Lady of Holy Cross, are closed at least for the fall term—possibly longer.

Many chapters concentrated their community service efforts to aid hurricane victims. On October 16, I participated in one of the largest and most successful fundraising efforts. The West

Grand President Mitch Simmons

Palm Beach Alumni Chapter sponsored a Halloween Themed Movie Matinee and Haunted Mansion, raising several thousand dollars for hurricane relief.

It has been humbling to see the outreach of many brothers who have come to the aid of others in need. I encourage all Deltasigs, both collegiate and alumni, to continue your generous giving to those in need. Service is one of the core values of our brotherhood, and now, more than ever, people need our help.

The 46th Grand Chapter Congress is scheduled to be held at the Hyatt Regency Hotel New Orleans, August 22-26, 2007. Despite the catastrophic damage and aftermath of Hurricane Katrina, we still hope to celebrate in true New Orleans style with our biggest and best Congress ever! The Board of Directors and staff are working overtime to make sure this event is truly memorable.

The entire national leadership team recently met at the Central Office in Oxford, Ohio, for a weekend planning and education retreat. We spent many hours reviewing the previous strategic initiatives and developing a new annual plan and long-term objectives for Delta Sigma Pi.

The objectives for this biennium will revolve around the five standing committees: Professional Development, Community Service, Scholastic Development and Awards, Alumni Development, and Organizational Development.

One of the objectives of this biennium will be the ongoing development of future leaders in our Fraternity. The National Professional Development Committee will work with the Provincial Vice Presidents to develop and implement a plan to bring national officer training to the provincial and regional levels. All potential national Fraternity leaders will have access to the same development opportunities that have been provided at the National Leadership Retreats in Las Vegas and St. Louis, as well as August, 2006 in Atlanta.

I pledge to you our leadership team will think on the edge to bring the freshest, most exciting, BEST ideas to the table, so that we continue to stay at the zenith of the Fraternity world, where we sit today. Each of you has the opportunity to make a difference to Delta Sigma Pi, if you implement your plan with the same enthusiasm, energy, empowerment, and elevation. ▲

Fraternally,

Mitchell B. Simmons
Grand President

Introducing Your New Leaders!

The final business session of each Grand Chapter Congress is devoted to the election of the Board of Directors and Regional Vice Presidents... the men and women who will lead Delta Sigma Pi for the subsequent biennium. At the 45th Grand Chapter Congress in Orlando, an outstanding group of dedicated Deltasigs became your new leaders. Here they are!

The national leadership team, including Board, Regional Vice Presidents and National Committee Chairs, met September 24–25 in Oxford, Ohio where they discussed, among other things, plans for the next biennium, strategic initiatives, and Centennial celebrations. Sessions were held on how to become more effective leaders, how to communicate with the rest of their team, and refresher courses were held on various Deltasig policy. Of course there were also fun icebreakers, team building games and group outings to remind the new leaders that working hard and playing hard are essential keys to success!

The History of Delta Sigma Pi: 1930 to 1939

by James Prescott, Loyola-Chicago

This is Part 5 of a Centennial Series, begun in the July '04 issue.

The 1920s saw unprecedented economic growth in the United States, although this growth was by no means felt everywhere, and by everyone. Many, however, thought these good times would last forever. After all, this was the United States, the land of limitless opportunity! But as memories are usually short, no one was thinking that a depression was around the corner, even though we had had a number of depressions earlier in our history. And no one, no one, thought a depression could be as bad as the Great Depression of the 1930s.

The term “Roaring Twenties” aptly describes the overall economy of the 1920s, but by the end of the decade signs were beginning to indicate problems were just over the horizon. These signs of things to come included stock prices that in many cases were far greater than normally supportable by either earnings or dividends. Americans were borrowing money at unprecedented levels (in fact, by the end of the 1920s most Americans had no savings). The Federal Reserve, established in 1913 to help provide a safer and more stable monetary system, began raising its lending rates in 1928 to slow the economy. Then there was Black Tuesday, the Stock Market crash of October 29, 1929 that wiped out the savings of rich and poor alike.

As the U.S. economy began a downward spiral, no one could predict when bottom would be reached. The downward economic spiral continued until 1933 when the economy once again began to expand. But in 1937, this expansion halted and it seemed to many as though the depression lasted forever. Even the massive new federal programs that were part of President Franklin Delano Roosevelt’s “New Deal” could not break the depression, which was as much a mental condition in the 1930s as it was an economic condition. It would take a war to end the Great Depression. But America was in the middle of a great pacifist movement in the 1930s, so it would take some great event, some terrible act to move the nation to war, and that great and terrible act came on December 7, 1941.

This was the state of things for Delta Sigma Pi in the 1930s. As part of the country, the culture, and the politics of the United States, we always have been and always will be impacted by the times in which we live. So, how was Delta Sigma Pi affected by the Great Depression? As a business, Delta Sigma Pi was impacted in much the same fashion as any other business or family. Chapter finances (both local and Grand Chapter) tightened when membership decreased as a result of fewer men being able to go to college. It should be noted that it would be many more years before the GI Bill would come into being with its massive college program. In fact, 49% of college enrollment in 1947 was made up of veterans! But in the 1930s many who desired to go to college could not—often for no other reason than having to stay at home to help support their family.

The notion of snobbery that fraternities and sororities have often been accused of stems from the idea that its members usually came from well-to-do families. The Great Depression caused a change in the social status of many and would have an impact on who would join the better “houses.” Many chapters who had houses during the 1930s had to struggle to keep from losing those houses. Sometimes they did the unthinkable and took in boarders during the summer months to raise additional funds. While houses were usually owned by house corporations controlled by alumni, most chapter members would consider their chapter and their house to be a single entity. This usually made the problem of one the problem of the other. This fact alone would almost guarantee Deltasig houses would all but disappear by the 1990s. But in pre-World War II days, most Deltasig chapters either had houses or dreamed of having a house.

The Fraternity had installed over 50 chapters by 1929, half of those during the four-year Grand Presidency of “Gig” Wright in the first half of the 1920s. However, only eight additional chapters were installed in the entire decade of the 1930s, and only two during World War II. In spite of the Great Depression, the Fraternity tried to operate as close to normal as possible. Grand Chapter Congresses, although shorter than Congresses of today, were still held. Provincial Conferences, the forerunner to Regional Conferences, were also held. (Provinces were later renamed Regions.) The DELTASIG magazine was still published and new programs begun.

Great Depression or not, our Fraternity continued to operate. Collegiate chapters often had to scale back their programs. The Central Office, under the skillful hand of its Grand Secretary-Treasurer Gig Wright, kept operating expenses to a minimum. Since the National Endowment Fund had been started at such an inauspicious time, there was very little in the form of an endowment to make any difference on national finances. And with so few Life Memberships being sold, as well as conceptual shortcomings of the program, it would be decades before annual membership sales would be in the hundreds, or the fund balance would reach a significant level.

The Chapter Efficiency Index is another Great Depression-era program—today it is maintained on computer with point requests submitted online. But when the program began in 1931, all point requests were submitted on paper by mail, except for the Chicago chapters who often just walked over to the Central Office to deliver by hand. This program was originally introduced as a contest among chapters, as well as a management and effectiveness tool by the chapter and national officers. The latter is still the purpose of this program today. The old 100,000 point system has since been replaced with a 100 point system, in addition to numerous other changes that have been made over the decades.

1932 was the Silver Anniversary of Delta Sigma Pi. The Fraternity had actually been founded during the 1907–08 depression, and was now to celebrate its 25th Anniversary during another. The desire to celebrate our founding was strong as 37 banquets were held around the country, attended by nearly 25 percent of the total number of initiates at that time. The Alpha Chapter celebration was attended by three of the four Founders (Harold V. Jacobs, Alfred Moysello, and Alex Makay) where they were presented with Life Memberships. Founder Henry Albert Tienken could not attend as he was in South America at the time.

In 1933, the eyes of the world were upon Chicago. Chicago was host of the 1933 World's Fair, called "A Century of Progress Exposition." In addition, Chicago was the host to the 11th Grand Chapter Congress. This "joint" scheduling helped to boost Congress attendance to over 300. (Incidentally, while this was not the first Grand Chapter Congress to be held in Chicago, it can be considered the last one to be held there. The 1942 and 1945 Congresses in Chicago were largely National Executive Committee meetings due to the large number of board members serving in the armed forces.)

Throughout the Great Depression, the Fraternity continued to issue The DELTASIG magazine. Only during the Second World War was the distribution and content temporarily changed. Another Great Depression-era program was kicked off in the November 1935 issue of the magazine—the Alumni Placing Service. This national program was an early attempt at networking, and heavily relied on local committees all over the country.

While the content of the magazine over the decades has mostly remained consistent, it is interesting to note that very little is mentioned in the magazine about the Great Depression. This must have been intentional. But one can wonder—did Deltasig college graduates fair better in their job search? Throughout the 1920s, 1930s and post World War II period, The DELTASIG was also available in hard cover editions. Many brothers and chapter houses acquired these now scarce, and musty treasures. As the Great Depression wore on, its impact on the Fraternity deepened. By 1937, the Fraternity had installed some 60 chapters, but many had become inactive or were struggling to survive. The situation would not change until 1941 when America would go to war and American business would flex its muscle to become the "arsenal of democracy."

When the Centennial Series continues... the War years. The chapters and the Central Office all but shut down. The future of Delta Sigma Pi rests on victory! ▲

Pennsylvania Students Assist Tsunami Victims

This past May, 16 Penn students and two faculty members spent two weeks in Sri Lanka. Projects included rebuilding homes, visiting orphans and donating supplies to people affected by the December tsunami. Brother Sumit Kadakia, then Vice President-Chapter Operations, organized the trip. He was inspired after watching the news coverage of the disaster's aftermath. "I thought that if I was in a position all of a sudden to make a difference, then I should take every opportunity that I can," Kadakia said.

The group of volunteers, composed mostly of Deltasigs, raised a substantial portion of the trip's funding (more than $36,000) by selling tsunami-relief bracelets and soliciting donations from their hometowns and from other sources.

The students partnered with the Association for Lighting a Candle, a Sri Lankan organization created in 1995 and dedicated to alleviating poverty in the country. They spent the first few days of their trip helping with the construction of a 19-home development in the town of Wadduwa. They dug holes for septic systems and sanded and painted window and door frames. Later, the group visited a home in Hambantota for children orphaned by the tsunami. They also got to assist in evaluating how children's relief funding was being spent.

Finally, after days of volunteer work, the students got to enjoy the sights and sounds of Sri Lanka, even getting to meet former President Bill Clinton, who was there representing the United Nations. —Sumit Kadakia

Western State/Zeta Kappa

This year's Homecoming was a busy one for our business, accounting, and economics departments. The ceremonial groundbreaking for the new Borick Business Building, the first major academic building at any Colorado public college or university to be constructed, equipped, furnished and endowed 100% with private funds, was held September 17. Several Deltasigs from our chapter attended the breakfast and ceremony. Afterwards, the Homecoming parade, themed "Breaking New Ground" was held. The Deltasig float followed directly behind the Grand Marshal Steve Borick, a 1974 graduate and the key contributor to the new building. Our chapter is currently raising funds for a brick donation in the name of Delta Sigma Pi. —Amy Beken

Another Successful LeaderShape® Concludes!

Back in June, eight Deltasigs traveled to Allerton, Ill. to attend the National LeaderShape® Institute's annual leadership conference. These brothers were selected from a pool of applicants and, thanks to the generosity of the Leadership Foundation, received a full scholarship to attend the event. The brothers in attendance were: Sandra Werner, Cal State-Sacramento; Patrick Bonfrisco, Cal State-Fullerton; Ryan Saffer, Truman State; Jason Campbell, Penn State-Behrend; Dennis Vera, Tampa; Jaclyn Tuason, Cal State-Fullerton; Kevin Smathers, Southern Mississippi; and Janet Rodriguez, Central Florida. Delta Sigma Pi will offer another LeaderShape® opportunity to Deltasigs in Summer 2006. Watch the web this fall for details.

"These six days have been amazing beyond words. Concepts about inclusive leadership, integrity, passion for a vision, and what it takes to be a genuine and ethical person suddenly made real sense!"—Sandra Werner, Cal State-Sacramento

"This is no ordinary leadership school. It harnesses a unique environment that is very conducive to the experience itself."—Jason Campbell, Penn State-Behrend ▲

Deltasigs Reach Out to Hurricane Victims

Deltasigs never hesitate to help a brother in need—or anyone for that matter. So it should come as no surprise that with many brothers personally affected by this tragedy, and word of thousands in need, we came through strong. Fundraisers continue to be held and offers continue to go out to those in need. At press time, it was reported that numerous Make A Difference Day activities will be focused on hurricane relief efforts. Special thanks to those brothers who offered to house victims. As reported to the Central Office, here are some of the relief efforts going on across the country.

Houston/Eta Psi and Space City Houston Alumni Chapter

Philadelphia Alumni Chapter

In conjunction with the Philadelphia LEAD School, the Northeastern Province put on a Provincial Penny War with all proceeds benefiting the Red Cross and hurricane relief.

Southwestern Region

At the Dallas LEAD School, a Texas Hold-Em Poker Night was held, with all proceeds going to the Salvation Army Hurricane Relief Fund. In addition, the Arlington Lone Star Alumni Chapter held a canned food drive for their Make A Difference Day project, with all donations going to the North Texas Food Bank for hurricane relief.

West Palm Beach Alumni Chapter

In October, in celebration of Halloween and to raise money for hurricane victims, we teamed up with Kiwanis Club to host a Halloween Family Themed Matinee Movie and Haunted Mansion. 100% of the proceeds of the event were donated to FEMA-approved charitable organizations exclusively for hurricane relief. In addition, we are donating 100% of the profits from the sales of our pins to FEMA-approved charitable organizations. Visit www.deltasigmapi.biz/ to purchase a pin.—West Palm Beach Alumni Chapter President Eddie Stephens

Orange County Alumni Chapter

On October 22, our chapter hosted a Halloween party to raise funds for hurricane victims, with proceeds going to the American Red Cross. The theme of the party was “Scaring Hunger Away—Helping the Victims of Hurricane Katrina.”—Ivan Munguia, Cal State-Fullerton

Texas A&M-College Station

Our chapter donated a total of $325 to our former president Anthony Zaccari and his family, who lost everything as a result of the recent hurricane. Anthony’s entire family moved in with him and his fiancée for an indefinite period of time. We presented them with a $200 Target Card, $50 Wal-mart Card, and $75 worth of gas.—Brian Reed opportunities for alumni chapters and brothers to share their activities and events with brothers across the country. Does your chapter have something to share? See the contents page for details on where to send your articles and pictures.

In September, WEST PALM BEACH Alumni Chapter President and Leadership Foundation Trustee Eddie Stephens presented a $3,500 check to the Muscular Dystrophy Association. ### Boston

The Boston Alumni Chapter (BAC) kicked off the 2005–06 year with traditional community service events and a membership drive.

We participated in the Lupus Foundation of New England's walk on October 2. The event, organized by Xi Phi (Massachusetts-Boston) charter member Susan Coughlin, is a major fundraiser for the Lupus Foundation. Proceeds from the walk will benefit research to find a cure for Lupus.

The BAC will also continue our holiday tradition of participation in the Juvenile Diabetes

Research Foundation's Wrap for a Cure. We've had done this event for over ten years as a tribute to Delta Psi's (Suffolk) Sue Eagen who passed away from complications of diabetes. In addition, the BAC initiated a membership drive for the fall semester. The drive includes member and non-member surveys, as well as diversified social events to vary event offerings.

Hawaii

The Hawaii Alumni Chapter held two fall kickoff barbecues at President Chris Tatsutani's home. We worked with the Lambda Psi Chapter (Hawaii-Hilo) to raise money for the American Red Cross for the hurricane relief fund. Members also helped provide manpower at the Hawaii County Fair. In addition, we attended Lambda Psi's "Meet the Chapter" night and supported other chapter activities. For fundraisers, we sold Krispy Kreme doughnuts and 2 for 1 pizza cards.

The alumni are planning another barbecue with famous Hawaiian dishes. We have our upcoming free movie night and look forward to a hiking trip in the Hawaii Volcanoes National Park. We hope to establish another Delta Sigma Pi chapter at the University of Hawaii at Manoa and welcome support from more alumni in the State. —Clayton Chong, Miami-Ohio

Los Angeles

It is safe to say we have now recovered sufficiently from Grand Chapter Congress in Orlando and extend a huge THANKS to all the brothers who made our visit the best ever with the over 35 new "friend" members of the LA Alumni Chapter and the many brothers who purchased traffic cone pins through our website.

Upcoming activities include a swanky Meet the Class of 2006 mixer downtown, the newly-launched "Adopt A VP of Alumni Relations" program, and planning for our first annual golf tournament and auction preceding next year's LEAD Provincial Conference in Anaheim. And of course, more monthly Traffic Stops (happy hours) around LA.

Deltasig Mourns the Loss of 1993 Lifetime Achievement Recipient Buzz Sutton

Golden Council member, and longtime Deltasig supporter, Charles "Buzz" Sutton passed away July 29. Buzz served as a founding member of the Phoenix-Thunderbird Alumni Chapter and as a Regional Director from 1959-61, and again from 1963-67. From 1967-69, Buzz served as the Director at Large on the Fraternity's National Board of Directors. The Director at Large position was the only Fraternity-wide elected position besides Grand President at the time. He was awarded the Fraternity's highest honor, the Lifetime Achievement Award in 1993. Brother Sutton was also a Trustee Emeritus of the Delta Sigma Pi Leadership Foundation, Golden Helmet recipient, Centurion Award recipient, and an attendee of numerous Grand Chapter Congresses with wife Ruth "Stonie" Sutton, who died in 2003. The Buzz and Stonie Sutton Archives Room, dedicated in 2000, will proudly carry on their names and Deltasig legacy.

Past Grand President Bill Tatum attended the funeral and performed the Graveside Ritual. Many other brothers, including 2005 Collegian of the Year Dave Glanzrock, Trustee Emeritus John Richardson and Leadership Foundation Chairman and President Greg Howell were also in attendance. In honor of Brother Sutton, his family has asked for contributions to be made to the Delta Sigma Pi Leadership Foundation. Dear Brothers,

It is with great pleasure that I present the Honor Roll of Donors (pages 26-35). Your generosity enables the Foundation to provide the scholarships and funding for education programs that develop business leaders. On behalf of the Board of Trustees of the Delta Sigma Pi Leadership Foundation and the many brothers who benefited from your support—"Thank You." Your support provided the Foundation with a banner year. With more than 1,200 donors in 2004-05, total giving exceeded $405,000. The Foundation's trust account assets also grew to $1,068,545, up from $878,225 last year.

As members of the Honor Roll of Donors, you continue to enhance the programs the Leadership Foundation is able to provide. During the last year, the Foundation provided over 250 scholarships, graduate fellowships and scholarship keys to the top graduating seniors at 125 universities nationwide. In addition, the Foundation funded more than $52,000 in grants for various educational programs. In June, eight Deltasigs received scholarships paying their full tuition and much of their travel expense to attend the national LeaderShape® Institute.

The Living Legacy Society is an important part of the Leadership Foundation's future success. See page 32 for details about this program, and current members. Special thanks to those brothers for their foresight!

Several funds were fully endowed in 2004-05. The members of the Board of the Deltasig (Beta) House Corporation also deserve great thanks as their generous gifts have enabled the Foundation to give its first single scholarship in excess of $5,000!

Membership in the 2007 Centennial Society has grown leaps and bounds this year! See page 27 for information on this exciting opportunity to commemorate 100 years of Delta Sigma Pi. The funds raised through membership in the 2007 Centennial Society support and secure education, leadership and scholarship opportunities for our Brotherhood.

With aggressive goals, it is our hope to fund all education programs provided by the Fraternity so the cost to each participating member is nominal or free by 2012. In order to meet YOUR Leadership Foundation's goals, I challenge each of you to contact a brother whose name does not appear within and ask for their support. I also challenge each of you to continue or increase your support. Help the Delta Sigma Pi Leadership Foundation make the Fraternity better for all.

Fraternally,

Gregory W. Howell
Chairman and President
Delta Sigma Pi Leadership Foundation

2007 Centennial Society

Recognizing a Century of Progress

As part of Delta Sigma Pi's Centennial commemoration, the Fraternity's Board of Directors and the Delta Sigma Pi Leadership Foundation Board of Trustees have created the 2007 Centennial Society. Membership in the Society is limited to those individuals providing $2,007 in unrestricted gifts between July 1, 2003 and June 30, 2008. Membership will be bestowed to individuals upon reaching $2,007.

The funds raised through membership in the 2007 Centennial Society will be used to support and secure future educational, leadership and scholarship opportunities for our brotherhood.

Special recognition of Society members will occur at all national and provincial Fraternity events, including the 2007 Centennial Grand Chapter Congress. Additional recognition will be provided through inclusion in The DELTASIG, and a final list of all Society members on permanent display at the Central Office.

We invite you to provide for our future, honor our past and join the 2007 Centennial Society today!

Endowed/Named Funds for Educational Scholarships and Grants

A gift to establish a named/endowment fund demonstrates your farsighted commitment to the development of future business leaders. An endowment fund is maintained in perpetuity, with a portion of the annual investment return to be used for the charitable purposes you specify. Such an endowment, which typically honors someone or bears the name of the donor or donors, reflects your interests and serves as an enduring testament to your generosity.

A minimum initial gift of $2,000 is required to start a fund. The fund is permanently endowed when at least $20,000 has been contributed within six years.* The fund then begins to generate annual scholarships and/or grants.

A fund may be designated to provide scholarships for members from a particular chapter or group of chapters or based on other criteria. Similarly, a fund may be designated to generate grants for an educational program that has special meaning to the donor.

A Gift Agreement between the donor and the Leadership Foundation sets forth the purpose of the fund and how scholarships or grants will be distributed.

For more details, or to start a named/endowed fund, contact the Leadership Foundation at foundation@dspnet.org or 513-523-1907 x237.

Living Legacy Society

(as of 8/30/05)

The Living Legacy Society is a planned giving program recognizing those brothers investing in the future in a special way. Through their planned gifts, these brothers help ensure a Delta Sigma Pi legacy of future generations of business leaders. You can join the Living Legacy Society by making a provision in your will or trust, or by naming the Leadership Foundation as a life insurance beneficiary. The Foundation staff is available to answer any questions regarding this giving option.

The Leadership Foundation salutes the following brothers who have made a special investment in the future by joining the Living Legacy Society. In the case of those brothers marked as deceased, the Foundation has already received a bequest.

Three Chapters Rejoin

Denver, the oldest independent university in the Rocky Mountain region, is once again home to the Alpha Nu Chapter.

Denver, Northwestern-Evanston, and McNeese State all rejoined Delta Sigma Pi with newly reactivated chapters on their campuses. The Alpha Nu Chapter at Denver was officially reactivated April 9, Zeta Chapter at Northwestern-Evanston on June 4 and McNeese State in Lake Charles, LA July 23. All three ceremonies were conducted by then Grand President Kathy Jahnke. Congratulations and welcome back!

Alpha Nu Chapter at Denver

This chapter was first chartered on October 10, 1925 and initiated 970 members until its closure in the 1989–90 academic year. After several attempts to reopen, a group of students in the fall of 2003 organized a colony—and successfully completed the chartering requirements. The reactivation ceremonies included the initiation of 27 students and two faculty members.

Participating in the ceremonies, in addition to then Grand President Kathy Jahnke, were Western Provincial Vice President Chuck Brown, then Rocky Mountain Regional Vice President Kathy Beckwith, District Director Gina Wing, then Vice President-Organizational Development Claire Roberts, 2004 Collegian of the Year Stephanie Menio, Leadership Foundation Chair and President Greg Howell, Golden Council members Sandy Shoemaker and Jim Pendergrass, Director of Chapter and Expansion Services Dale Clark and Educational and Leadership Consultant Kim May.

The University of Denver, founded in 1864, is the oldest independent university in the Rocky Mountain Region. The Daniels College of Business was founded in 1908. In 1989, Bill Daniels, who founded cable TV in the West, donated a sum of money to improve the business curriculum. The college was recently named among the top five for ethical standards.

The Zeta Chapter at Northwestern-Evanston, closed since 1967, reopened its doors June 4.

the Brotherhood!

Zeta Chapter at Northwestern Evanston

The Zeta Chapter at Northwestern-Evanston was first chartered on November 14, 1920 and initiated 722 men until its closure in 1967 when business was phased out. A colony of economics students began reactivation efforts in spring 2003. Reactivation ceremonies included 28 students and one faculty member.

Northwestern-Evanston was founded in 1851. The town of Evanston was named after university founder John Evans. The current economics department, along with the Kellogg Graduate School of Management, serves as hosts for the new chapter.

Participating in the ceremonies were then Grand President Kathy Jahnke, then North Central Provincial Vice President Pete Bjelan, Great Lakes

Eta Tau Chapter at McNeese State

This chapter was originally chartered May 3, 1969 and initiated 387 members until its closure in 1992. The Dean, faculty, and alumni recruited students to begin a colony in fall 2004 who moved swiftly in meeting charter requirements. The new chapter was reactivated with 26 students and two faculty members.

During the reactivation banquet, Lake Charles Mayor Randy Roach issued a proclamation recognizing the newly reactivated chapter. Eta Tau sponsors were also recognized, including major contributor Philip Tavor of Lake Charles Toyota.

McNeese State was founded in 1939 as a junior college, under the division of Louisiana State. In 1950, it became a 4-year institution and separated from Louisiana State. The College of Business has over 1200 students and supports three centers: Center for Economic Development Information Services, the Real Estate Institute, and the Small Business Development Center.

Then Grand President Kathy Jahnke also conducted this ceremony—held just two weeks prior to Grand Chapter Congress. Others participating in the ceremonies included Gulf South Regional Vice President Jason Campagna, District Director and now Foundation Trustee Lisa Schram, Chapter Advisor and Pledge Educator James Watts, new Grand President Mitch Simmons, Vice President-Finance Joelle Berlat and husband Jeff, new South Central Provincial Vice President Jeff Gallentine, National Scholastic Development and Awards Chair James “Duckie” Webb and wife Derry, Past Grand President Bill Tatum, Golden Council members Gus Schram, Frank Busch, Richard Featherston, Michael McNulty, and Director of Chapter and Expansion Services Dale Clark. ▲
