9. NATIONAL HONORARY INITIATE

Purpose of Recognition

Delta Sigma Pi selects qualified persons to be National Honorary Initiates. This honor recognizes an individual who has served as a role model of professionalism, leadership, and success through ethical business practice and service to others.

Eligibility Requirements

- Nominated by a member or chapter of Delta Sigma Pi

Criteria

- Foster the Study of Business in Universities: While participating as a collegiate in the Fraternity, a brother experiences two main types of learning: inside the classroom and outside the classroom. While classroom experiences can be difficult to get involved in, the candidate should be willing to assist in the outside of the classroom learning for the collegiates. Whether he or she speaks at an occasional individual chapter meeting or addresses a Fraternity conference, the candidate is an example to the brothers based on the success of his or her own professional career and his or her willingness to assist in the education of the brothers.
- Encourage Scholarship, Social Activity, and the Association of Students: How does the candidate encourage scholarship? Has he or she made financial contributions to various scholarship funds? Will he or she be an active promoter of the Leadership Foundation? Will the candidate regularly and enthusiastically attend Delta Sigma Pi conferences and events? Is the candidate approachable and willing to make him or herself accessible to the brothers? Delta Sigma Pi should seek a candidate who leads by this example and commits to continue to encourage the brothers.
- Promote Closer Affiliation between the Commercial World and Students of Commerce: The candidate who shows interest in brothers for internships and career opportunities is actively promoting this closer affiliation. Since most candidates will be associated with a company or organization, they should be open to establishing relationships between the brothers (both collegiate and alumni) and their organizations. This relationship comes in the form of corporate sponsorship, event support, and other financial, educational, or service activities.
- Further a Higher Standard of Ethics and Civic Responsibility: Not only must the candidate display an impressive ethical record, but he or she should also be a promoter of ethical business practices and service to the community. Collegiate chapters are required to review the Fraternity's risk management policy and to perform multiple acts of community service each semester. The honorary candidate should be expected to uphold the same criteria as all brothers.

Desired Nominee Characteristics

There is a difference between an honorary initiate and a speaker at a Fraternity event. The speaker is there to present ideas, discuss methodologies, or assist Delta Sigma Pi at the Fraternity's request; regardless of his or her 'fit' for membership. The honorary initiate, is not only a speaker, but also demonstrates the criteria below.

- Professionalism: Since Delta Sigma Pi is a professional fraternity; candidates should demonstrate professionalism in their career, community involvement, and fraternal pursuits.
- Success / Public Awareness: Success with regard to the achievements of an individual can be measured with respect to the career that he or she has chosen. Each career has a different measure of success and public awareness is often a characteristic of success. For example, in the management field, success can be measured by the position of the individual. Few people know who the regional vice president is for XYZ Company, but most people know of the CEO of XYZ. Regardless of the field, success can also be measured with respect to his or her peers.
- Public Speaking: One of the expectations of an honorary initiate is his or her ability to speak before the Fraternity at the Grand Chapter Congress or national event at which he or she is initiated. The individual in question should not only be willing and able to do this, but also have significant experience in public speaking.
- Desire to Serve: All candidates for initiation into Delta Sigma Pi must do so unselfishly. This criterion transcends into the realm of honorary brothers. The individual should have a history of public service and the desire to continue to serve.
- Upstanding Citizen: It is the best interest of the Fraternity to initiate individuals that promote ethical business practices during his or her career. The Fraternity should avoid candidates that have a public history of scandal or corruption.
- Leadership: From the beginning, the honorary initiate is a role model for the Fraternity. As a role model, he or she is a leader of the Fraternity even without experiencing fraternal success. How well the candidate demonstrates leadership or what type of leader he or she portrays through prior experience will exemplify the initiate as a leader for Fraternity.

Expectations of National Honorary Initiates

- Fraternity Exposure: Is the candidate willing to publicly support the ideals and purpose of the Fraternity? Does he or she refer to the Fraternity with respect? Will he or she regard Deltasigs as assets to not only the business world, but to his or her own ventures?
- Social Involvement: Immediately after initiation, the candidate joins the Fraternity in the celebration at Grand Chapter Congress. When asked, will the new brother continue to demonstrate his or her support for the Fraternity by attending high-profile events?
