

Delta Sigma Pi

A national, co-ed, professional fraternity

The Fraternity was founded in 1907 and currently has more than 220 active collegiate chapters and 50 alumni chapters nationwide. Delta Sigma Pi chapters select members from students pursuing bachelors or master's degrees in business and/or economics. Memberships is not restrictive with respect to honor societies, department clubs, local special interest groups, or social fraternal organizations. The benefits of joining Delta Sigma Pi are endless, but here's a few to get you started:

- Being a part of an expansive, diverse international network of more than 300,000 collegiate and alumni members who share interests and professional goals.
- Participation in professional programming, service events and diversity training to help you develop your leadership and professional skills as well as social awareness.
- Eligibility for Delta Sigma Pi Leadership Foundation scholarships to help you reach your academic potential.
- Lower dues and fees than social fraternal organizations because there is no residential housing.
- Lifelong membership from the moment you are given your badge.
- Access to multiple leadership events annually for member and chapter development as well as the largest national convention of any similar fraternity.
- Chapter support from national staff through on campus visits and consultation program.
