

Delta Sigma Pi

A national, co-ed, professional fraternity

The Fraternity was founded in 1907 and currently has more than 220 active collegiate chapters and 55 alumni chapters nationwide. Delta Sigma Pi chapters select members from students pursuing bachelors or masters degrees in business and economics. Memberships is not restrictive with respect to honor societies, department clubs, local special interest groups, or Greek organizations. The benefits of joining Delta Sigma Pi are endless, but here's a few to get you started:

- Being a part of an expansive, diverse international network of more than 260,000 collegiate and alumni members who share interests and professional goals.
- Participation in professional programming and service events to help you develop your leadership and professional skills.
- Eligible for Delta Sigma Pi Leadership Foundation scholarships to help you reach your academic potential.
- Lower dues and fees than social Greek organizations because there is no residential housing.
- Lifelong membership from the moment you are given your badge.
- Access to 10 leadership events annually for member and chapter development as well as the largest national convention of any similar fraternity.
- Chapter support from national staff through on campus visits and consultation program.
